Obituary

Mr. Oddies Shoulders was born to the late Josie Brown and Bill Shoulders on October 4, 1931 in the Little Elk Community in Limestone County. He departed this life on August 27, 1994 at his residence.

He confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined the Little Elk Missionary Baptist Church. He was married to Florene Brown for a short period. To this union one child was born Valerie Joyce Shoulders. He will be missed for his sense of humor and his fun side.

He leaves to cherish his memories: A devoted daughter Valerie Joyce Shoulders of Nashville, Tennessee; a grandson of Nashville, Tennessee who preceded him in death; Two brothers Porters Shoulders of Huntsville, Alabama and Rosseau Shoulders of Louisville, Kentucky; three sisters Elsie Cannon of Louisville, Kentucky, Larve Watkins of Joliet, Illinois, and Idell Sanderfer of Chattanooga, Tennessee; one sister-in-law Bertha Shoulders of Huntsville, Alabama; two brothers-in-law Martin Watkins of Joliet, Illinois and James Sanderfer of Chattanooga, Tennessee; a very kind devoted and special friend Lucy W. Washington of Athens, Alabama; 35 nephews, 27 nieces, 60 great nieces, 40 great nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

*"I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done
I'd like to leave an echo whisper softly down the ways of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days
I'd like to be remembered as the one that passed this way
Spreading joy cheer and sunshine each and everyday I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun and reflect upon happy memories I leave when life for me is done.*
