Obituary

"And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God,
to those who are called according to his purpose"
(Romans 8:28)

Katie Lucille Inman Bradley was born February 10, 1910 in Leggtown, Alabama. She entered into eternal rest October 5, 2003 in Nashville, Tennessee. Her parents were the late Henry and Addie Smith Inman.

She grew up and attended school in the Leggtown community. Her Christian life began when she accepted Christ under the pastorage of Rev. Allen Batey. She joined the Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church at Red Hill, Alabama. In recent years, she rejoined First Baptist Church, Pulaski and remarked that she was "Coming Home".

In 1925 she was united in matrimony to Daniel Webster Black. To this union two children were born ~ one of whom, James W. Black preceded her in death. She later married Rev. Mace Bradley, who preceded her in death on May 13, 1975.

"Ma-non", as she was affectionately called by her family, was a loving grandmother who was devoted to her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Mrs. Martha Black Humphrey, Nashville; thirteen grandchildren — Amanda (Alric) Clardy, Charles (Theresa) Humphrey, Rev. Daniel (Brenda) Humphrey, Martha (Al) Baker, Mary Butler, Teresa Humphrey, Myra Black, Bonnie (George, Jr.) Sledge, James (LaSonya) Black, Jr., David Black, Mildred (Larry) Bass and Dwayne Black: a host of great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Andize Johnson, a brother-in-law, Joe Coleman, several nieces, nephews, many cousins and friends.

The Home Beyond

*We feel so sad when those we love
Are called to live in the home above,
But why should we grieve when they say good-bye
And go to dwell in a cloudless sky?
For they have but gone to prepare the way,
And we'll meet them again some happy day,
For God has told us that nothing can sever
A life He created to live forever.
So let God's promise soften our sorrow
And give us new strength for a brighter tomorrow.*
