Acknowledgement

Our hearts are bowed in sorrow over the passing of our loved one, yet during these times, you have lifted many of our burdens for which we are eternally grateful. Your many kind expressions of sympathy and all other acts of kindness shown during our many hours of bereavement shall never be forgotten. From the depth of our hearts all of us say, "Thanks to each of you."

Obituary

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day and not for me only, but unto all of them that love his appearing."

II Timothy 4:8

Elder John William Glover was born on May 21, 1919 to the late Dick and Augusta Rogers Glover in Limestone County, Alabama. He departed this life on July 23, 2003 at 3:30 p.m. at Athens-Limestone Hospital.

Elder Glover married the late Bernice Fletcher Glover on February 8, 1941 and to this union four lovely daughters were born.

Everyone who knew Elder Glover lovingly called him "John." At an early age he became one of God's children and joined Newby's Chapel Missionary Baptist Church; later moving his membership to Pleasant Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Church in America to be with his wife.

He served diligently and faithfully at Pleasant Grove as an Elder. One of his many duties was to help coordinate Revivals, which he loved. Elder Glover accepted his charge as an Elder with a smile. He felt that this was a serious responsibility and was present every time the church doors opened until his health began to fail. His voice will be remembered with the sounds of "This Little Light of Mine" and "Lord Remember Me" which he enjoyed singing in church.

Elder Glover leaves to cherish loving memories; four daughters: Alice Whigham, Sherry Glover, Renita (Terry) Byrd, all of Athens, Alabama and Mary A. Glover of Indianapolis, Indiana; four grand children: Travis Whigham, Renya Ervin, Jasmine Byrd, all of Athens, Alabama and Patricia (Leonel) Pouengue of Chattanooga, Tennessee; one great grandson: Jairus Ervin of Athens, Alabama; one brother: Tom Glover of Hazel Green, Alabama; one sister: Laura Leslie of Nebraska and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
