

April 3rd 1920

Dear Henry:

I am glad you wrote me about the Memorial Window for Mother. I will pay half of the cost of it. I would prefer to pay my part when the window is complete and installed, if that plan can be arranged. Ruth's trip to Europe, with other inescapable financial demands, will put me to it this summer to meet my obligations. If you can, write me in advance when you want me to send you my part.

I will carry your messages to Sue. She understood that her letter reached you late.

I hope you will make a practice of taking a comfortable trip every now and then. It is a wise thing to do to get into a rut & about as wearing on a mill & illness

Yours off.
