Obituary

Mildred Elizabeth Gurley Brown was born in Athens, Alabama on August 2, 1920, to the late Thomas Mason Gurley, Sr. and Eula Moore Lockhart Gurley. God called her from labor to reward on Friday, April 6, 2012 at the Valley View Health and Rehabilitation Home in Huntsville AL.

Mrs. Brown was joined in holy matrimony to the late Walter Lloyd Brown on February 7, 1946.

She accepted Christ early in life and became a member of Village View United Methodist Church. She later moved her membership to Trinity Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, where she remained actively involved until her health failed. She continued to have a genuine interest in her church even after she could not attend.

After graduating from Trinity High School, she matriculated at Alabama A. and M. College, and earned a Bachelor of Science Degree. She taught in the Limestone County and Athens City schools for many years, touching the lives of hundreds of children. Additionally, she had a great love for sewing. She mastered the art of needle point, embroidery, knitting, monogramming, and made lingerie for people throughout the Tennessee Valley.

Following in her mother's footsteps, she also spent many hours in the kitchen baking, canning, and preparing delicious meals for family and friends. She enjoyed inviting others to dine with her.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two nieces, Bettye G. (Lankford) Cain, Huntsville AL, Madeline (Kevin) Van Horn, Cleveland OH; two nephews, Thomas Gurley, Columbus OH, Dennis Gurley, Cleveland OH; one cousin, Nelson Howell, Athens, AL; and other relatives and friends.
