Obituary

"The light has gone out on a great soldier, to shine in another land."

Brother Clayton David Sr. was born February 6, 1919 to the late Clayton and Italy Hobbs David of Athens, Alabama.

Clayton accepted Christ at an early age and united with St. Luke M.B. Church. He was employed by International Harvester and left Alabama in 1957 to pursue better job opportunities. He retired from University of Cincinnati as a foreman after thirty years of dedicated service and relocated back home to Athens.

He leaves to cherish his memory a devoted and loving wife, Maggie Lane David; three brothers, Loudon, Richard, and Mack W. David; and one sister, Katie David Elliott; seven children, Ella David McCants, Brenda David Thompson, Clayton David Jr., Judy David Hobbs, Wirvyn D. David, Kimberly David Pigram and Pamela David Davis; five sons-in-law, Nelson McCants, Stanley Thompson, Owen Hobbs, Vinson Pigram, Vincent Davis; two daughters-in-law, Brenda David, Angela David; fifteen grandchildren; three great grandchildren and a host of other friends and relatives.

*When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little - but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love we once shared,
miss me - but let me go.
For this Journey we all must take,
and each much go alone.
It's all part of the Master's Plan,
a step on the road home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
go to friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in good deeds
Miss me - but let me go.*

Love Daddy
