Acknowledgment

We are never quite prepared to face the departure of a loved one to eternal rest. It is gratifying to know that relatives and friends have shown in so many ways that they care. Words cannot express our deep and sincere appreciation for the many expressions of love and kindness shown during the homegoing of our beloved "Daddy." We pray that God will bless each of you and keep you in His care.

Obituary

Howard was born on August 10, 1911 in Madison County to the late Jeff and Elizabeth Jolly. He departed this life on January 14, 2012 after being on earth for 100 glorious years. Howard will reside in eternal rest with his wife, Emmaline Jolly; three daughters, Mary Williams, Rosie Rice, and Ruth Warren; one son, Howard Raymond Jolly Jr. five grandchildren; and two-great-grandchildren. He confessed hope in Christ and joined Shiloh M. B. Church on July 26, 1958.

Howard was a retiree of the City of Decatur Public Works and Sanitation Department.

Howard was a loving devoted father to his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. He was a kind, loving and giving person. He was always concerned about the needs of his family, making sure everyone had what they needed. He was affectionately known as "Daddy" by his family and friends.

His memory will be forever cherished by his nine devoted grandchildren, Willie Mae Pointer, Johnny Warren, Ronnie Warren, Jerry Warren, Billy Warren, Coretta Carroll, all of Decatur, Al, Janice Brown, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Brenda Sharpley, of Hartselle, Alabama, and Nakia Anderson of Harvest, Alabama. Forty great-grandchildren; 3 special great-grandchildren; Mary Ann Taylor and Kamelia Warren of Decatur, Alabama and Lekesia Brown of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Twelve great-great grandchildren. A special niece, Ollie Black of Decatur, Alabama. A special nephew, Carl Carter of Decatur, Alabama and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and friends.

"Daddy"

I can never begin to thank you for being the most wonderful grandfather. I thank you for your unconditional love, and always making sure I got what I wanted. I will miss you dearly, but I will always carry you in my heart. I will always be your "baby", as you so often called me. Rest now Daddy, because you certainly deserve it.

Loving you always

- Kamelia
