Wednesday Morning -

Dear Harry:-

You've been "on the fly," to such an extent that I refrained from writing sooner. In fact, thought you'd be coming home by the end of the week -

Am glad you made up your mind to stay as I feel its better for you after the tiring experience of the numeros examinations.

I talked to Memory a little while ago and they are all right - We were talking about Little Laura's wedding among other things - She is to marry - in Florida - day, and, spend the winter there - Think spring has come, facing winter as usual, in this case because they are both at the age of "retirement" - she, from the ministry - and, she from active life. Little Laura, in telling me about it, made it sound very practical, i.e., she could convert anyone as she did Eugene, etc., but, Cousin Laura, ever romantic, whispered to me "I bet perfectly crazy about her, Sarah!" O, that's as it may be.

Did Memoire write you about the Massenburg - Rogers wedding? She may have omitted the Christ.

evening of the new<sup>3</sup> house (Harry built and furnished a house for his bride) - that night after the rehearsal. It seems Mackie hurled a Dr Pepper bottle at the side of the house - in lieu of a ship and champagne. And instead of the house, she hit Papa Masseyburg in the leg, disabling him so he couldn't appear at the wedding the next day - A bad start for the bride I thought.

I asked Ned about the applicants for Mr Smith's job - He told me John Coffman, Baker Cutcher and Lou Cartwright applied - The last, Leon, was appointed, so, I imagine no one who needed it more could have been chosen -

People ask me every day how you are - Luther Glaze said yesterday he'd been awfully worried about you - Ned says Mr Gilbert has asked him repeatedly about you, and seemed very deeply concerned -

I hope you're getting built up, so you'll feel like having the operation, if that's necessary -

Anna has called me several times to inquire about you - Said yesterday she and Jim both had been anxious to hear from you - The result of the exam., etc - All my friends whom I see often, ask every day about you - Wish you the best of luck and more people get from the treatment - Lots and lots of love, devotedly, Sarah
