Obituary

March 5, 2005 the Heavenly Father told our beloved mother it was time to come home.

Lucille Clemons Noble was born January 15, 1933 to the late Charlie Clemons and Dellar Matthews Clemons. At an early age she confessed and accepted the Heavenly Father and joined Bright Hope C.P.C.A. and remained there until her death. On December 23, 1948 she joined in holy matrimony to George Noble, Sr. and to this union 7 children were born. She was devoted to the Heavenly Father, Mother of her church and family. Our lives will forever be changed.

One child preceded her in death, Dorothy Jean Williams and her brother, David Lee Clemons (Annie) of Athens, Alabama.

Those that are blessed with the memories are her husband, George Noble, Sr.; her sons, George Willie (Elizabeth) of Toney, Alabama, Marcus (Vicki), Roy Lee, Larry Horton of Huntsville, Alabama, Gregory (Jennifer) of Minot, North Dakota; her daughters, Juanita Hammonds of Huntsville, Alabama, Carolyn Jackson (Edward) of Powder Springs, Georgia, Hattie Mae Moore of Athens, Alabama, Lateta Jackson (Harold) of Lewisburg, Tennessee; her brothers and sisters, John Henry (Pauline), Charlie Jr., Lula Mae (Jettie) of Athens, Alabama, Robert (Elaine) of Cincinnati, Ohio, Rosie Lee (David), Roosevelt (Shirley) of Huntsville, Alabama; her 21 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The Rainbow

*If I could go to see the rainbow, If I could go and see
Please come along and share this vision with me*

*The rainbows colors are a beautiful sight
The colors are a dark hue to a sunny bright*

*The rainbow is arched really high
It seems to be kissing the sky*

*The rainbow seems to be over hills
Across the fields and if you will*

*Listen to the tale of a pot of gold.
At the end of every rainbow*

*I don't know if it's true,
But I'd like to find out wouldn't you.*

Hello Dea

*I will not say good-bye, only hello
To kind woman who, helped me grow*

*As a parent and a person
Even when the stresses of life would worsen*

*You were there
I will not say good-bye, only hello
To a gentle soul, who helped me know*

*That life was worth living
To be positive and keep on giving
Despite what others said*

*So, I will not say good-bye, only hello
To the only mother, I've ever known*

*You showed me love and constant compassion
Even with life's little distractions*

*You were there with a smile
So, Hello Dea!*

Love,
~LATETA~
