Obituary

Sister Tammy Lannette McDonald was born on June 13, 1972 in Limestone County. She confessed hope in Christ at an early age. She served as a faithful and active member at Pleasant Grove C.P. Church in Athens, Alabama until she was called home. She also served as the Vice President for the Number 3 Choir at Pleasant Grove. She departed this life on July 13, 2001 at Huntsville Hospital.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted husband Corey McDonald. Two sons: LaCorey and JaColby McDonald. Her Mother Ida (J.C) Ray, all of Athens, Alabama. Her Father Ellis (Helen) Rainey, of Ohio. One sister - Jackie Rainey, of Athens. Three Brothers: Don Rainey of Athens, Michael (Teresa) Rainey and Troy (Darlene) Crutcher of Athens. A special and loving Mother-in-law Martha (Henry) Gilbert of Athens. Father-in-law Bobby (Gracie) McDonald of Athens. Two Sister-in-laws - Shirley (John D.) Goodwin and Jill McDonald of Athens. Three brother-in-laws: Milton McDonald, Darryle McDonald and Tellie McDonald of Athens. Grandparents - Hattie Mae Crutcher, Jack McDonald of Athens and the late Johnny Crutcher, Sr. Uncles: Johnny, Jr. (Belle) Crutcher, Jimmy (Ethel) McCullough of Athens, Phillip Rainey, and Franklin Rainey of Nashville, Tennessee. One Aunt: Vernelle Jetton of Nashville, Tennessee and host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
