Refr. B. H. Barker.

Montgomery, Ala.

Dear Harry:

Your courage sent by Mr Hodges reached me last night, and I think now that I will come to Montgomery Sunday.
Mr Hodges has kindly asked me to dine down Sunday evening with his family, but am not sure yet.
I'll be at East Point, Florence and I discussed going down to the inauguration, so I am phoning her to night (Fri) if she can go
we will go by train.
Of course all Hotels are crowded
so thought of wiring Commissioner Harris, and see if we might get a room in the house where she stays. I'll be sorry to see her lose her position.

Florence and I will enjoy seeing Sammy. You will be very busy
I know, but I hope for a few minutes talk with you.

Circumstances have arisen in the house here, that makes it advisable that I resign after this semester, about Feb. 1st.

This is hastily written, but want to get it in this afternoon mail.
Am so glad you were victorious,
and with such flying colors.

With kindest regards, and best wishes.

Fondly

Emily Estlin.
