With Deepest Appreciation

We are never quite prepared to face the departure of a loved one to eternal rest. It is a very difficult time. But, it is gratifying to know that relatives and friends share our sorrow and show in so many ways that they care. Your prayers, calls, visits, cards, flowers, food, and other expressions of sympathy have been great strength for us all. Please continue to keep us in your prayers as we adjust to our loss. May God bless and keep each and everyone of you.

Just Away

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead – she is just away!
With a cherry smile, and a wave of the hand,
She just wandered into another land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there.
And you – O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and glad return,
Think of her as faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of her still as the same, I say:
She is not dead – she is just away!

To My Wife

My precious Wanda it seems as if our time together was so very short. The times we had together will be treasured in my heart always. I have watched you fight a good fight. I grieve for you, but now you are free. God called your name, you took his hand when you heard him call, you turned your back and left it all. Even though it is hard for me to except, I realize you are following the path God has led you to see. You often spoke the words that no matter what happens you are ready. I can be at ease knowing that your suffering is over and you are in a better place. I will miss your smile, I will miss hearing your voice and seeing your face. God knows what is best for you and me. May you sleep on – sleep and I will see you soon “my precious Wanda”.

“Our love will always carry on”
From your husband, Gregory

Precious Memories

Picture Perfect

God took the warmth of a summer sun,
The strength of a mountain,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of ages,
The patience of eternity,
And gave us you;
To comfort, to encourage,
To bring out the best in everyone and everything,
The picture of perfection on earth
You are gone but the snapshot of
Your life will live on forever.
