

Limestone Democrat society editor

This 1915 photo from the Limestone County Archives pictures 34-year-old Memory Pryor McClellan Walker, daughter of Robert Henry Walker and granddaughter of Luke Pryor. According to "Lure and Lore of Limestone County," Memory's husband was only 17 years old when, in the 1890's, he purchased the Limestone Democrat, which he continued to edit and publish until 1950. According to Sara Lipham, who married their son, Robert Henry Walker Jr., Memory was society editor of the Limestone Democrat for many years.
