My dear Mary.

I want to thank you and William
for the lovely little gift you sent Ruth. It is one of the things she needed most and unless her manners at table improve very much she will use it for a long time.

I am so sorry to hear that William has been sick. He always seems so strong and well I can't think of him any other way.

We have gotten straight at last and are feeling more comfortable in our new quarters.

I like Montgomery very much and everybody is so nice to us.

I want to know if you and William want

come down and make us a visit sometime next month when Mother comes.

This is very serious with
me. for I want you to come very much. — You have now shown me your heart and of course if you decline my invitation I can't help but feel that it is your wish now to be friends.

Pardon my going into detail, but I have been wanting to write you this for a long time. I have always had the best of feelings for you memory and sometimes I think we might grow to like each other very much if we only had half a chance.

I am going to count
on your coming - You must not disappoint me and I hope you will make your plans to come in February with

mother, whenever it suits you best.

I know William will like it down here, so much for a little boy to see.
Be sure and give him
my love — And remember me to Harry —

Write best wishes for the New Year and with love
from us all

Faithfully —
Sue Ruel
