

- Pall Bearers -

Friends

- Flowers Bearers -

Friends

"Interment and Committal"
Thatch-Mann Cemetery

- Acknowledgement and Appreciation -

The family of Brother James Horton wishes to express our sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown during the passing of our loved one. May God richly bless each of you is our prayer.

- The Family

Final Arrangements Entrusted To
PEOPLES FUNERAL HOME
12060 Highway 31, South
Athens, Alabama

Home Going Celebration For Brother James Horton

March 28, 1927
Sunrise

June 29, 2005
Sunset

Sunday, July 3, 2005
2:00 P.M.

St. Mark Primitive Baptist Church
740 West Sanderfer Road
Athens, Alabama 35611

Elder Kenneth Owens, Pastor

OBITUARY

"God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb; He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered, "Peace Be Thine".

Brother James Horton was born in Limestone County, Alabama on March 28, 1927. He was reared by Little Horton, his grandmother, after the death of Jessie Horton, his mother. He departed this life on June 29, 2005 at the Athens-Limestone Hospital.

"Jessie" as he was fondly called, was educated in the Athens and Limestone County schools. He worked diligently as a beautician in the city of Athens for a number of years.

He confessed hope in Christ and united with St. Mark Primitive Baptist Church when it was located at Green Hill and continued his membership there when it relocated in Athens, Alabama. He served his church "faithfully and untiringly" until death.

He leaves to cherish his memory two loving sons whom he helped to raise, Timmy and Tommy Battles of Athens, AL; five sisters, Mary T. Washington of Cincinnati, OH, Margaret Jones of Athens, AL, Mary Alice Jones and Helen Jones both of Rockford, IL, and Martha Martin of Pacific Grove, CA; two brothers-in-laws, Orsteem Washington of Elkmont, AL and John Washington of Cincinnati, OH; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and loving friends.

THE HOMECOMING

*The glory of angels singing
As the heavenly trumpets sound...
Beholding the majestic splendor,
Revealing I'm homeward bound.*

*There is no pain or sorrow nigh
All trials will be passed away...
When Sweet Jesus warmly greets me,
I will know that I'm coming Home to stay.*

PROGRAMME

PROCESSIONAL

Song & Prayer St. Mark Deacon

Scripture Appointee

Selection St. Mark Choir

Acknowledgements

Remarks Justice R. Eugene Pincham

Selection St. Mark Choir

Obituary (Read Silently)

Eulogy Elder Kenneth Owen

Solo Deacon Arthur Jordan

RECESSIONAL

