Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed,
I am now at peace forever safely home in heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh, Jesus love illumined every dark and fearful glade.*

*And he came himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely. For I love you dearly still.
Try to look beyond earth's shadows pray to trust our Father's will.*

*There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand
Do it now while life remaineth; you shall rest in Jesus land.*

*When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home.
Oh, the rapture of that meeting oh, the joy to see you come!*

Obituary

Elizabeth Handy, was born February 2, 1909 in Athens, Alabama to the union of West and Jane Moore. She departed this life Sunday, March 5, 2000

She received her formal education in the public schools of Athens and Chicago, Illinois.

She confessed hope in Christ at an early age and united with the Pleasant Green Presbyterian Church under the leadership of Rev. Dancy. After coming to Chicago, Illinois, she joined the Canaan Baptist Church and later joined Tabernacle as a "Charter Member" where she worked on the Usher Board and served as a teacher in the Sunday School department for more than 25 years, under the leadership of Dr. Louis Rawls.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to Albert H. Handy on June 10, 1932, who preceded her in death.

Elizabeth lived a full and loving life, helping others and traveling around the country. She strongly believed in two key ethics: Family love and hard work. She will be greatly missed by all that knew her, especially the family.

To cherish her life on earth are the ones she loved. Two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Alberta Moore of Athens, Alabama and Mrs. Judy Handy of Chicago, Illinois; two nephews, Clarence Moore, Willie Bass, one niece, Irene Riley all of Chicago, Illinois; one nieces, Julia Futrell of Tucson, Arizona, two nieces, Pauline Clemons and Elizabeth Steven of Athens, Alabama. A host of great and great-great nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

The Family wishes to give a "Special Thanks" to her "Special Son" Mr. Willie B. Jackson. "Well done thy faithful servant."
