

Saturday

Dear Harry:

I intended writing my congratulations & tell you how proud I was of your success but we have so many domestic upheavals rather so much to do that it is hard to concentrate on a letter.
My congratulations are none theless sincere even if a little tardy. I imagine you are glad that strain is over for suspense is terrible. I should have written last night but we went to the "Fair" at Fargo and was worn out when I came back it is a free Fair & real good Miss Mary hasn't sent rent yet I hope she pays more than last year I have to put so much in the family till it leaves nothing for clothes.

Don't bother to collect the rent if you haven't time send it she can send it to me with out worrying you. Love to all.

Sarah sends love and heartly congratulations.
Respectfully
Ada
