

I appreciate what you say about the
"Memo" I say my wife and in the Memo or it - one can learn the conflict of

By the way
Jan, 27 - 1928

Memory -

I have been trying since your letter came, to get something about the most fair into North Ala.
Bas Little (Coneville) preacher here, was a member of Forest ascert. - He has a history of Forest, in which there is a chapter on the Skinnerish in Athens - He will not lend the book and neither has not his time to go, and send it.

she hopes to have time tomorrow (Saturday) Bob Little says, he was not in the battle in Athens. There is an J. C. Schaffer, who lived in Milberry, who was with Forrest in Athens, we are trying to get in communication with him - I remember that we heard the guns, and I ~~was~~ heard, Forrest was in Athens - Great excitement prevailed - We thought the war was over, Forrest had taken Athens!
Later in the day several straggling soldiers, came up through our spring lot. They confirmed, what we had heard

Do you remember an Miss Barth, who I met 2 years in Athens - she was from Marion City Tenn - she has recently married here & her name was Kentucky to meet some one, who knew my Athens people and they told her & I will tell her all about the people there & although in reading the "Democrat" so few of the old names of my day - Mollie Wright had heard of this girl - Also I have been interested in Sue Garner Peck who died a few days ago

And requested, she be buried in Ash Grove, beside her husband Luke Peck - I knew them well, she married and the man married Dickey - she sent much service to me during the years, she has lived here, she wanted to see me I never did meet her - I am sorry I did not meet could find out exactly where she lived - Luke Peck was very kind and so was she - Mr. & Mrs. Peck all there folks but don't expect you do - Write and tell me all the news - I will write as soon Miss Mary - I will write as soon as I can get any thing definite about Forest in Ash Grove - Love to all - With Love
Aunt Kitty