

E. W. GODBEY, ATTORNEY
DECATUR, ALABAMA

Feb. 3, 1922

Mr. R. A. Walker
Athens, Ala.

My dear Sir:—

I am wholly inadequate
to the undertaking of expressing my regret at your brother's death. I always held him in the most exalted esteem; and did not await his death to say so.

I planned to attend his funeral.
I arose at 4 O' clock this morning;
but owing to misinformation as to the schedule, the train left about the time that I was within a block of the station. This, if possible, added to my regret—

With kindest regards
Yours sincerely E. W. Godbey.
