FUNERAL RITES

For

MR. CORNELIUS MOSELEY

Antioch C. P. Church
3:00 P.M.

Rev. Walter Pride, Officiating

Mason Funeral Home In Charge

OBITUARY

*The clock of life is wound but once;
And no one knows the hour,
At what time the clock will stop;
At a soon or late hour.*

Mr. Cornelius Moseley was born in Athens, Alabama, September 30, 1935. He attended public schools in Athens and Rockford, Illinois until poor health forced his withdrawal.

Cornelius united with the Bethel Baptist Church in the spring of 1948, under the pastorate of the Rev. N. B. Russey. Although he was very young, he took part in all youth activities of the church. He was a member of the youth choir and of the boys' athletic group.

He leaves to mourn his passing a devoted mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Moore; a father, Mr. James Moseley; a brother, Austin Moore; a daughter, Physal C. Moseley; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ratliff and Mrs. Mattie Moseley; several aunts and uncles and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

*Why do we mourn departed friends,
Or shake at death's alarm?
Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
To call them to His arms.*
