Words of Reflection

Jimmie Lee Malone, was born to the late Mae Willie Baker and Henry Malone on November 4, 1942 in Athens, Alabama.

Jimmie came to Detroit in the year of 1968 after his honorable discharge from the United States Army in 1967.

He was joined in holy matrimony on June 3, 1968 to Ruth Malone. From that union, a son, Jimmie Kwasi Malone was born.

The skills he obtained in the field of medicine in the United States Army helped in his job with the Emergency Medical Service for the city of Detroit for eighteen and a half years. Jimmie Malone was an active member in the E.M.S. Union, and served as its president.

Though joining the church at an early age, he was reunited with his faith, became a member, and was baptized at Triumph Baptist Church; Rev. David Deyampert, pastor, earlier this year.

Leaving to mourn his passing are; his wife, Ruth Malone; sons, Jimmie Kwasi and Jason Malone; his daughter, Cynthia Griffin; brothers, Archie Malone, James O. Booker, and the memory of the late John Malone; sisters, Lucille Smith, and Annie Mae Allen; sisters in-law, Mary and Berthena Malone; his nephew, Johnnie Malone; aunts, uncles, and other nephews, great nephews, nieces, and great nieces; his loyal friend, Rosenaul Hicks and Bertha Davis, and a host of relatives and friends.

*Don't worry about me
For the Master is still my guide
And He has called and beckoned me
Away, to the other side.*

*So don't worry about me
In the Lord you must confide
And one day we'll all meet again
With him on the other side.*
