

to R. H. Walker

May 10, 1897.

My dear Cousin

Your nice letter received last week. It was real kind of you to obtain a pass for me to Cousin Annie's, but it is too bad that it is only good until the middle of this month. Don't you think you could get it extended? - for it is in-

possible for me to leave here before
next week, will write you what day
to expect me.

I received a letter from Cousin H. She seems real glad that you & I are to visit her.

My
head still continues to ache. It seems to be somewhat like the one that seized Cousin Poe just before I left, nothing seems to relieve it; suppose
will have to let it take its course. I am taking three different medicines, will go to the Drs again to-day. It doesn't ache so violently as it did.

Notwithstanding
my feelings, last Friday night I attended the "May Ball"
at the Washington Artillery Hall. Mr. O.
Kealey, ^{the Frob-Keeper} was my escort & I had a fine time.
He has certainly been nice to me. We got home about half
after twelve, rather early to leave but Aunt F.'s ^{children} were tired &

We were obliged to come home with them.

I have enjoyed every moment of my time here, & will certainly regret leaving.
Uncle B. wants me to stay all summer & go with the family across the Lake, as they expect
it.

I will now close as I have two more letters to write this morning. Much love to you & all.

Your affec. Cousin,
Susan