

P a l l B e a r e r s

The Four Sons and
Mr. Hegan Wilson and Mr. Junior Wilson

F l o w e r B e a r e r s

Miss Annie Stanley
Mrs. Viola Benford
Mrs. Mattie Fletcher
Mrs. Ara Lee Williams
Mrs. Emma White
Mrs. Vanzola Crutcher

.....

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family of the late Mr. Harrison Rainey wish to express their heartfelt gratitude and most profound appreciation to those who extended acts of sympathetic kindness to them during their hours of sadness.

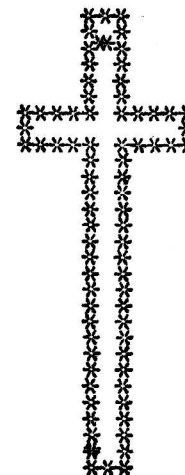

Funeral Directors in Charge
PEOPLE'S FUNERAL HOME ATHENS, ALABAMA

"In Memoriam"

FUNERAL SERVICES

F o r

Mr. Harrison Rainey

SUNDAY, JUNE 18, 1967
2:00 P. M.

NEWBY'S CHAPEL MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH
Reverend Clarence Jordan, Officiating
Burial.....Leslie Cemetery

THE OBITUARY

Mr. Harrison Rainey, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Woodlow Rainey, was born, October 5, 1895, in Limestone County, Alabama.

The Holy Father, infinite in loving kindness and tender mercy, saw it eminent to add another servant to His Kingdom of love, to free another from labor. This was accomplished on Thursday morning, June 15, 1967, at 4:00 A.M.

Mr. Rainey was married to Miss Lela Hanserd in the month of March, 1925, in Limestone County, Alabama. To this union was born ten children - four of whom preceded him in death.

Mr. Rainey was a devoted husband until his death. He was always known to be friendly, kind; and was ready to lend a helping hand at all times.

He leaves to mourn his passing, a devoted wife, Mrs. Lela Rainey; four sons, Messrs. W. D. Rainey of Walker Hill Tennessee, Claude Rainey, Nashville, Tennessee, Franklin Rainey, Detroit, Michigan, and Ellis Rainey of Athens, Alabama; two daughters, Misses Vernell Rainey of Nashville, Tennessee, and Carrie Rainey of Athens, Alabama; one sister, Mrs. Otto Hanserd of Rockford, Illinois; two brothers-Mr. Monroe Rainey of Pontiac, Michigan, and Mr. Elmore Rainey of Huntsville, Alabama; nine grandchildren, and a number of other relatives and friends.

P R O G R A M M E

Processional

Song and Prayer..... Elder Eldridge Leslie

Scripture

Song.....The Choir

Acknowledgments

Remarks.....Brother Roy Malone

Obituary.....(Read Silently)

The Eulogy.....Reverend Clarence Jordan

Solo.....Mrs. Rainey Malone

Viewing of Remains.....Mortician Directing People's Funeral Home

Recessional

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."