

FUNERAL SERVICE

of

MRS. LUCINDA BROWN

Sunday, March 16, 1969 - 1:00 P.M.

Phillip Tabernacle P. B. Church

Huntsville Highway 72

Rev. Austin Anderson, Officiating

Burial - Ragland Cemetery

Greenbrier, Alabama

Carinus Carter, National Funeral Director & Mortician

Mason Funeral Home, Directing

OBITUARY

*Life is but a working day,
A time to work, a time to pray,
And then comes death,
This comes to all.*

Mrs. Lucinda Brown was born April 15, 1901 to Mrs. Roda Turner and Alfred Slay and raised up in Greenville, Alabama and attended the churches and schools there. She was married to Mr. Dit Brown at an early age. To this union was born one child. Her husband and daughter proceeded her in death. She moved to Limestone County and professed a hope in Christ and joined the Pine Grove M. B. Church. She later joined the Phillip Tabernacle P. B. Church under the pastorage of Rev. Southern, where she remained until death on Monday, March 10th. Death came at the Athens Limestone County Hospital.

She leaves to mourn her passing two sisters, Mrs. Bessie Baker, whom she lived with, Madison, Rt. 1, Mrs. Julia Clarke, Athens, Alabama, two brothers, Mr. George Slay, Huntsville, George Wilson, Nashville, two brothers-in-law, Mr. O. C. Baker, Sr., Madison, Rt. 1, Mr. James Clarke, Athens, one sister-in-law, Mrs. Inez Slay, Huntsville, four nieces, Bessie Lee Driskell, Madison, Rt. 1, Lizzie Mae, Anderson, Madison, Rt. 1, Nannie Lee Baker, Madison, Rt. 1, Marie Shoulder, Athens, Ala., four nephews, Willie James Baker, Greenbrier, Alabama, Willie Lewis Baker, Madison, Rt. 1, O. C. Baker, Jr., Madison, Rt. 1, George Jr. Slay, Florida, and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn her passing.

*Another soldier's gone to get a great reward,
She fought the fight,
And kept the faith,
And now gone home to God.*

PROGRAM

Processional
Song ..... Choir
Song and Prayer ..... Deacon Dan Byrd
Song ..... Choir
Remarks: As A Neighbor and As I Knew Her.. Deacon John Wesley Batts
Acknowledgements ..... Mrs. Virginia James
Obituary ..... Mrs. Virginia James
Eulogy ..... Rev. Austin Anderson
Solo ..... Mrs. Mary Holman
Closing Prayer ..... Deacon Charlie Ratliff
Viewing of Remains

Carinus Carter, National Funeral Director & Mortician
Mason Funeral Home, Directing

FLOWER BEARERS

Mrs. Mary Batts
Mrs. Omelia Freeman

Mrs. Pearlina Baker

Mrs. Ola Reed
Mrs. Mary Holmes

PALL BEARERS

Horace Langford
Joe Rice, Jr.

Willie James Baker

James Houston
O. C. Baker, Jr.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family wishes to express their thanks for the kindness shown during their hours of sorrow.