OBITUARY

It is said that there are three words in the English vocabulary that are more solemn than all of the others. They are life, death, and eternity. Life is more solemn than death; to live is more serious than to die. The object of Christ's death was life. A christian death gives them a more abundant life. Death is a joyful messenger of peace whose kind hand opens to the weary pilgrims the gate of immortality and lets the oppressed go free. A busy life came to a close March 27, 1992 when Every D. Mayberry was called to her heavenly home. Every D. was born in Limestone County to the late Febbie Mayberry. She was converted and joined New Zion M. B. at an early age and later joined New Hopewell M.B. under the leadership of the late Rev. M. C. Cosby.

She leaves to cherish her memories one daughter Febbie (David) Lane, one son, Calamus Mayberry, both of Athens, Alabama; she has three grandchildren; Larry Mayberry, Jannifer (Gary) Matthews, Timothy (D'Angela) Lane, all of Athens, Alabama; she has six great-grandchildren two great-great-grandchildren; one aunt Fleta Stover, Decatur, Alabama; devoted cousins, Razzie Mason and Jessie (Mabel) Mayberry both of Athens, Alabama.

Every D. has been separated from an aching frame; She will sleep so restful, So at peace, No More sickness, no more pain. We feel that Jesus was with her in her last hour, and held her fast. She leaves behind freed from grief and years for more worthier thing than tears, the love of friends and love ones. They will lie her beneath a bank of flowers, care untroubled; joy, surrounded sweetly sleeping awaiting the resurrection morning.
