

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and The staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. . . Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.

For this is a Journey that we all must Take and each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the hills we know
And bury your sorrow among the trees
Miss me - but let me go.
