Visit from my Heavenly Father by Pam Davis

I sat and prayed for the King to come.	His glory shined upon my face.
I waited patiently for His arrival.	We danced upon the water...
I looked up and gazed at the heavens	We danced upon the land...
As he came down;	I called out for Him not to go;
I smiled as He approached me.	But it was time for Him
He took my hand and led me to the Jordan River.	To ascend back to Heaven.
I could feel the sand and water beneath my feet.	The Hands of the King
He embraced me and I felt His loving touch.	Took my hands in His... He said, "I will never leave or forsake you I will be with you always... Until the ends of the earth." I will cherish this moment forever.

In Loving Memory

Pamela Jayne Davis

April 15, 1961 - February 15, 2012

Obituary

Sister Pamela Jayne Davis was born April 15, 1961 to the late Clayton David Sr. and Maggie Lane David of Athens, Alabama.

Pamela sought the Lord, our God, at an early age and joined New Life Missionary Baptist Church. She was baptized at twelve years old. Her true understanding of God's grace came on February 15, 1999 when she received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior during a visit at International Gospel Outreach Family Church in Smyrna, Georgia.

Pam relocated to Houston, Texas where she joined Lakewood Church and where she faithfully served in a wide range of volunteer roles. She started in Kids Life ministering to the youth and then transitioned to the singles ministry where she ministered hope through friendship. Pamela served as a prayer partner, ministering daily to the needs of people. Along the way Pamela developed a passion for missions traveling to Honduras, El Salvador and Mexico. Pamela was instrumental in the formation of three missions organizations; Circle of Love, Hands of the King and Tower of Hope Ministries, all of which still take the hope of Jesus Christ to the city of Houston, communities of the Northern border of Mexico, and the 4 corners of the highest mountains and deepest jungles of Peru.

More recently Pam joined Pastors Frank and Allie Mazzapeka at Celebration Church in the Woodlands, Texas, an extension of Lakewood Church, where she continued to be used of the Lord.

Pamela lead a very purposeful, full and rich life that exemplified God's Love.

To cherish her memory, she leaves: Maggie David, her loving mother; beloved brothers, Clayton David III and Wirvyn Dean David, Sr.; beloved sisters, Ella McCants, Brenda Thompson, Judy David and Kimberly Pigram (her twin sister); sisters-in-law, Brenda and Angela David; brothers-in-law, Nelson McCants, Stan Thompson and Vinson Pigram; uncles, William Mack David and Thomas Lane; aunts, Elizabeth and Barbara David and Juanita Lane; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and dear friends.

"...But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God." Acts 20:24

Recessional

“When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little – But not too long,
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love we once shared,
Miss me – But let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to your friends that we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good works,
Miss me – But let me go.”
