"Remember Me"

*Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow,
But remember me in every tomorrow,
Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles,
I've only gone to rest a little while.
Although my leaving causes pain and grief,
My going has eased my hurt,
And given me relief.
So dry your eyes and remember me,
Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
Because, I will remember you all,
And look on with a smile.
Understand in your hearts,
I've only gone to rest a little while.
As long as I have the love of each of you,
I can still live on in the hearts of all of you.*

Obituary

Omelia Cosby, one of eleven children, was born to the late Rev. John Holt, Sr. and Emma Flannagan-Holt in Athens, Alabama on March 19, 1927.

She accepted Christ at an early age at Little Ezekiel Baptist Church in Athens, Alabama. She later relocated to Louisville, Kentucky and joined Sweet Leaf United Primitive Baptist Church.

Omelia united in Holy Matrimony to James Cosby over 70 years ago, in Athens, Alabama and later moved to Louisville, Kentucky. To this union, they were blessed with five children; three of which preceded her in death.

Omelia was a faithful Christian and a dedicated member of Sweet Leaf United Primitive Baptist Church. She was a loving, caring mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend to more than just her own family but to everyone. Everyone was welcome no matter the time of the day, she never turned her back on anyone. Sunday's was family day for her with plenty of food, love, and laughter! We hold onto all those memories of the love she brought into our lives. Keeping this in our hearts we will always have Omelia.

She was also preceded in death by her parents, John and Emma Holt, brothers, Edward, Herman, Alex, Johnnie, Ray Holt; sisters, Hattie Anderson, Pauline French, Fannie Mae Green, Rena Wallace and three children, James, Sylvester, Betty Cosby. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, James Cosby; sister, Katheryn Johnson and daughters, Elaine Cosby and Velma Simmons. She also leaves to cherish her memory 17 grandchildren and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends.
