and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 2nd day of October, 1934 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Luther Yarbrough

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Carlow J. Boyd, Chas. H. Long, Sam G. Flanigan, Clint Ezell, William D. Lyle, Jr., Mark Zehner, Roy Whitt, R. Lewis Morrig, and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Nick R. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvin Taylor, T. Cheese Gaston, G. Cleve Batts, Emmitt Weatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Griffin, Wm. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene S. Southard, Wm. E. McLemore, Earl T. Green, John W. Boyd, Erskin Bates, Arthur Vassar and J. Horton Kelly

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court N. R. Nichols, Jr., was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Allen Cox was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 2nd day of October, 1934 D. S. Tarrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Luther Yarbrough

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Charles J. Boyd, Chas. H. Long, Wm C. Flanigan, Clint Snell, William B. Lyle, Jr., Mark Zehner, Roy Chitt, R. David Worrig, and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Nick R. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvin Taylor, T. Cheese Ganton, C. Cleve Batts, Samitt Weatherford, Milt Cole, John B. Griffin, Wm. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorens E. Southard, Wm. E. McManors, Earl T. Green, John W. Boyd, Erkin Bates, Arthur Vassar and J. Horton Kelly

N. R. Nichols, Jr., was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Alison Cox was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 6th day of March, 1928 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 75 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Wm. C. Holt, W. B. Gardner, Wm. W. Baker

J. E. Clem, Jr., Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

J. R. Johnson, R. B. Evans, Robert L. Morris, W.F. Derham, Chas. A. Leopard, E. K. Sloan, Henry E. Key, Earnest Holland, Wm. M. Barksdale, Dock Webb, Robert H. Waldrep, Wm. P. Durham, Felix G. Bates, Robert H. Noblett,

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Will Black, T. H. Adams, Burrell Bottoms, S.B. Buckner, B. H. Ezell, J. R. Corder, Grady Paul Gaston, Chase H. Lindsay, J. E. Hardeman, C. L. Nabors, L. E. Dunivant, Gilbert G. White, Lakin Clem, John C. Batts, Jr. L. C. Hodges, Claud Holt, Elmer White, Luther E. Hall, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Gilbert G. White was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

C. W. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA }

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Roy Whitt, James G. Rochell, Ripley M. Lumsford, Chas. O. McEnirey and Garland Smith.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Olin M. Edmundson, Malcolm C. Grisham, Tom C. Garner, Hoyt Williamson, Charlie Taylor, Frank M. Fogg, John W. Cox, Robert H. Holt, John G. Sandlin, Sam E. Kennemer, J. Luther Glaze, Chas. T. Cox, Curb C. Dunivant, Richard E. Durham, Samuel R. Clanton, W. Frank Fielding, Luther G. Mitchell and Lawson E. Dunivant.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Olin M. Edmjndson was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

T. C. McCormack was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 26th day of April, 19 34 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe. S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ )
unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Iaxon, T. Disler Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, RanRom E. Keeton, J. M. (Bud) Sartin and John H. Brakefield.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. John H. Brakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 26th day of April, 1934 S. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John H. Holt and Ovie C. Hall

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Edmond F. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe. J. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. C. Rochell and Ernest Holland

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Doland Worthy, David C. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. B. Roberts, Henry Taxon, T. Dieler Copeland, George W. Brown, Hollie C. Smith, Brandon D. Keeton, J. H. (Bud) Martin and John H. Hakefield.

John H. Hakefield

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Donnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 26th day of April, 19 34 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles D. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Taxon, T. Disler Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Ransom E. Keeton, J. M. (Bud) Sartin and John H. Brakefield

John H. Brakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Max H. Rosenau, Edgar L. Smith, Wallace C. Coleman, Roy L. Laughmiller, Claude Jones and Herbert W. Norton.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

L. Nell Gilbert, Oscar Vinson, Sewel Newby, Luther Lock, William Clements, Fred Black, Howard Hobbs, W. Lee Weatherford, Hollis G. Ingram, Alvie Durham, W. Luther Wales, Tom. J. Evans, W. Tolly McLenore, Milton W. Hayes, John W. Moore, Thos. F. Johnson, Vester Leonard and Max W. Hudson, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 26th day of April, 1934 D. L. Turrontine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hill.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. M. Eldon, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Edmond J. Garrett, Hollie B. Boston, Nelson E. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rockell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Witness this 26th day of April, 1934 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Welliden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 26th day of April, 1934, B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John H. Holt and Ovie G. Hall.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.

J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varneil, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Disar Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Ransom E. Keeton, J. M. (Bud) Sartin and John H. Brakefield.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court John H. Brakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 26th day of April, 1934. B. S. Turrentino, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 68 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John H. Holt and Eric C. Hall.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.

J. E. Weldon, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Edmond A. Garrett, Hollis E. Boston, Welson E. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe G. McDonald, Dr. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Roland Northy, David R. Coffeen, Rubin H. Patterson, Norman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Cather J. Blakely, Robert O. Gray, Charles G. Varnell, W. S. Roberts, Henry Taxon, T. Dister Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Ransom E. Keeton, J. E. (Bud) Martin and John H. Frankfield.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court John H. Frankfield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Donnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 26th day of April, 19 34 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.

J. E. Wellden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Edmond F. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe s. McDonald, Wml Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Disler Copeland, George W. Brown, Tolkie C. Smith, Ransom E. Keeton, J. M. )Bud) Sartin and John H. Brakefield.

John H. Brakefield

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Bonnie Webb

was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 2nd day of October, 1934. B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Luther Yarbrough

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Carlos J. Boyd, Chas. H. Long, Sam G. Flanigan, Clint Ezell, William D. Lyle, Jr.,
Mark Zehner, Roy Whitt, R. Lewis Morris and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Nick R. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvine Taylor, T. Cheese Gaston, G. Cleve Batts, Emmett Weatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Griffin, Wm. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene Sl Southard, Wm. E. McLemore, Earl T. Green,
John W. Boyd, Erskin Bates, Arthur Vasser and J. Horton Kelly, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court N. R. Nichols, Jr. was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Allen Cox was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Charles J. Boyd, Chas. E. Long, Sam C. Flanigan, Clint Beall, William B. Tyle, Jr., Mark Palmer, Roy Whitt, R. Lewis Morris and Gurb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Nick R. Nichols, Jr., Garvin A. Custeel, Bob Irvine Taylor, T. Cheese Gaston, G. Cleve Batts, Emmett Weatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Griffin, M. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene El Southard, W. T. Wolamore, Earl T. Green, John E. Boyd, Edwin Bates, Ethel Vasser and J. Horton Kelly.

N. R. Nichols, Jr.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

_____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 2nd day of October, 19 34 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Luther Yarbrough

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Carlos J. Boyd, Chas. H. Long, Sam G. Flanigan, Clint Ezell, William D. Lyle, Jr.,
Mark Zehner, Roy Whitt, R. Lewis Morris and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Nick R. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvine Taylor, T. Cheese Gaston, G. Cleve Batts, Emmett Weatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Groffom, Wm. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene S. Southard, Wm. E. McLemore, Earl T. Green,
John W. Boyd, Erskin Bates, Arthur Vasser And J. Horton Kelly, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court N. R. Nichols, Jr. was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Allen Cox was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 2nd day of October, 19 34 E. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Luther Yarbrough

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Carlos J. Boyd, Chas. H. Long, Sam G. Flanigan, Clint Ezell, William D. Lyde, Jr., Mark Zehner, Roy Whitt, R. Lewis Morris and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:
Nick R. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvine Taylor, T. Cheese Gaston, G. Cleve Batts, Emmett Weatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Groffom, Wm. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene S. Southard, Wm. E. McLenore, Earl T. Green, John W. Boyd, Erskin Bates, Arthur Vasser And J. Horton Kelly.

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court N. R. Nichols, Jr. was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Allen Cox was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar D. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, Sam M. Bowen and Clint E. Brock

J. E. Welden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. H. Wood, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. P. Chandler, Wm. S. Sockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Heggie H. Robinson, Wm. M. Hundley, Walter J. Schrimsher, Oscar A. Downs, Claud L. Williams, Alexandrew L. Claem, Floyd O. Parker, Zack Berzette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. Brakefield, Leonard F. Daniel, Horace H. Williams, Ollie McGrew, James D. Holland, Chas. S. Gates, Rolly M. Sims and Edward J. Magnusson

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Tollie C. Smith was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

C. W. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 B. W. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar D. Clem, Geo. C. Hardy, Ben E. Brown and Clint S. Brock

J. M. Welden, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. H. Todd, R. E. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. W. Williamson, Wm. C. Chandler, Wm. C. Lockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Heggie H. Robinson, Wm. H. Hundley, Walter J. Chrismer, Oscar A. Downs, Claud W. Williams, Alexander L. Clem, Floyd G. Parker, Jack Bernette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. Brookfield, Leonard F. Daniel, Horace H. Williams, Ollie McGraw, James D. Holland, Chas. C. Gates, Polly M. Gino and Edward J. Magnusson

Tollie C. Smith was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

C. W. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935, B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar D. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, Sam M. Bowen and Clint E. Brock

J. E. Welden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. H. Wood, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. P. Chandler, Wm. S. Sockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Heggie H. Robinson, Wm. M. Hundley, Walter J. Schrimsher, Oscar A. Downs, Claud L. Williams, Alexandrew L. Claem, Floyd O. Parker, Zack Berzette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. Brakefield, Leonard F. Daniel, Horace H. Williams, Ollie McGrew, James D. Holland, Chas. S. Gates, Rolly M. Sims and Edward J. Magnusson

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Tollie C. Smith was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

C. W. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935, B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar D. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, Sam H. Bowen and Clint E. Brock

J. L. Elden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Salton Gray, Geo. H. Wood, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. P. Chandler, M. L. Rockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Heggie H. Robinson, Wm. M. Hundley, Walter J. Chrisman, Oscar A. Downs, Claud L. Williams, Alexandrov L. Cloem, Floyd D. Barker, Jack Berzette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. Brakefield, Leonard F. Daniel, Horace H. Williams, Ollie McGrew, James D. Holland, Chas. B. Gutes, Rolly E. Sims and Edward J. Magnusson

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Tollie C. Smith was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

C. W. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 13th day of October, 1932 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. Warten Broadway.

Al A. L. Baker, Sheriff.

J. E. Welden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Harry J. Kitrell, David A. Hazelwood, Merrett Compton, Will G. Robinson, James H. Holt, Emmett B. Ferguson, Carlos J. Boyd, Ed T. Gray, Jr., and Wm. J. Howard.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Chas. H. Long, John D. Clem, John B. Evans, Lawrence Cole, Gurlin H. Griffin, Leo Hargrove, George W. Moran, Walter M. Gordon, Luther Hicks, Arthur Vassar, John C. Bullington, Massey D. Poteete, Thomas E. Hatchett, Raymond Fogg, Jewett E. Johnston, Mack R. Bullington, Farris T. Dodd and Geo. M. Witty

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Elson Burns was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 26th day of April, 1934 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Disler Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Ransom E. Keeton, J. M. (Bud) Sartin and John H. Brakefield, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court John H. Brakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Edmond A. Garrett, Hollie D. Boston, Melton A. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe B. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rachell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Roland Worthy, David T. Coffman, Rubin W. Atterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blackely, Robert A. Gray, Charles C. Vannell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Brier Copeland, George A. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Hanson D. Keeton, J. H. (Bud) Martin and John H. Brakofield,

John H. Brakofield who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
_____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 2nd day of October, 1934, R. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Arthur Barber

W. L. Jones, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Carlo J. Boyd, Chas. R. Long, Am G. Flanagan, Clint Bell, William B. Kyle, Jr., Mark Schner, Roy Whitt, R. Louis Morris and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Nick H. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvine Taylor, T. Cheene Gaston, G. Cleve Bates, Emmett Leatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Griffin, Wm. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene B. Southard, Chas. T. Mcemore, Earl T. Green, John J. Boyd, Irvin Bates, Arthur Vasser and J. Horton Kelly, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

N. H. Nichols, Jr.,

_____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar D. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, Sam M. Bowen and Clint E. Brock

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. H. Wood, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. P. Chandler, Wm. S. Sockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Hezzie H. Robinson, Wm. M. Hundley, Walter J. Schrimsher, Oscar A. Downs, Claud L. Williams, Alexandrew L. Claem, Floyd O. Parker, Zack Berzette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. Brakefield, Leonard F. Daniel, Horace H. Williams, Ollie McGrew, James D. Holland, Chas S. Gates, Rolly M. Sims and Edward J. Magnusson, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Tollie C. Smith was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

C. W. Johnston, was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 B. L. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Mr. F. D. Cien, Geo. G. Hardy, Sam M. Bowen and Clint L. Brock:

J. E. Mellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Sutton Gray, Geo. H. Wood, A. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. L. Chandler, Chas. L. Rockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....) unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tollie C. Smith who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 17th day of October, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt

Jas. B. Wellden, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis M. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin and G. Flenaugh Douthitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1936 D. L. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John H. Holt

James E. Elden, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James W. Adams, Louis E. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin and O. Plenaugh Douthitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom J. Hastings, W. Luther Sales, A. Gilbert Nowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonso Chambers, Howard Y. Douthitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Hewitt Catlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Dale Holt, Denton H. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Jagg, Luther Jackson, Heflin Jackson and W. Walter Hall

W. Luther Sales who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
_____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis M. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin and G. Menough Douthitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hasting, W. Luther Wales, A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Doughitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Dale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Legg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson and P. Walter Ball

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court W. Luther Wales was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 17th day of October, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt

Jas. E. Wallden, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis M. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin and G. Flenaugh Douthitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....)
unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hasting, W. Luther Wales, A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Doughitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Dewitt Gailin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Olanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Dale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Legg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson and P. Walter Ball

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court.....W. Luther Wales.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Fletcher Rogers.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 17th day of October, 1935, J. L. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 35 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt

Jas. L. Ellison, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Robert L. Bittick, James A. Adams, Louis A. Green, A. Alex Greenlaw, Clarence A. Johnson, Pierre Johnson, William C. Martin and C. Flenagh Bouthitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:
Tom G. Hastings, A. Luther Sales, Gilbert Rogers, Walter Daniel, W. Monroe Chambers, Howard M. Doughitt, C. Lewis Mitchell, J. Hewitt Gullin, Leonard E. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert B. Clinton, John H. Vining, Wm. Paul Holt, Denton B. Bailey, Joe. Ed. Legg, Luther Lee, Heflin Jackson and A. Walter Ball

A. Luther Sales who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis M. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin and G. Flenaugh Douthitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hasting, W. Luther Sales, A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Doughitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Dale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Legg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson and F. Walter Ball

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court W. Luther Sales was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis E. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin and G. Flenaugh Douthitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hasting, W. Luther Sales, G.A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Doughitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Dale Holt, Benton E. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Legg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson and . . . Walter Ball

W. Luther Sales

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers

was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 19 35 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis M. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin and G. Flenaugh Douthitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hasting, W. Luther Wales, ~~Gilbert~~ A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Doughitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Dale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Legg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson and P. Walter Ball

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. W. Luther Wales was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1935 B. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 08 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: John R. Holt

Jas. W. Fadden, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis E. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin and G. Plenaugh Douthett.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hastings, W. Luther Sales, William A. Gilbert Powers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonso Chambers, Howard Y. Doughitt, A. Luke Mitchell, E. Hewitt Catlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Sam Dale Holt, Denton B. Bailey, Geo. Ed. Jagg, Luther Lock, Reelin Jackson and W. Walter Hall

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 26th day of April, 1934. B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: John R. Holt and Ovie G. Hall.

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors. The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury, for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Edmond P. Garrett, Hollis B. Boston, Nelson W. Hendricks, Homer F. Dunivant, Joe S. McDonald, Wm. Wallace Barber, J. G. Rochell and Ernest Holland.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as ~~Grand Jurors~~ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Roland Worthy, David R. Coffman, Rubin H. Patterson, Herman Boyd, Kirby Lee Johnson, Leonard F. Daniel, Elmer Brooks, Luther J. Blakely, Robert L. Gray, Charles C. Varnell, Wm. E. Roberts, Henry Laxon, T. Disler Copeland, George W. Brown, Tollie C. Smith, Ransom E. Keeton, J. M. (Bud) Sartin and John H. Brakefield, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court John H. Brakefield was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 26 day of Feb, 1934. B. J. Current, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 09 Jurors on all of the within named persons except: John B. Holt and Wm. C. Hall.

_____, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Richard W. Garrett, William C. Horton, Nelson W. Henderson, Robert F. Smith, Joe A. McDonald, Wm. William Barber, J. C. Toohill and Robert Holt.

And it appearing to the Court that

~~Richard W. Garrett, William C. Horton, Nelson W. Henderson, Robert F. Smith, Joe A. McDonald, Wm. William Barber, J. C. Toohill and Robert Holt.~~

had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Richard W. Garrett, William C. Horton, Nelson W. Henderson, Robert F. Smith, Joe A. McDonald, Wm. William Barber, J. C. Toohill and Robert Holt.

John H. Bradford

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

_____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 2nd day of October, 1934 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Luther Yarbrough

A. L. Baker

, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Carlos J. Boyd, Chas. H. Long, Sam G. Flanigan, Clint Ezell, William D. Lyle, Jr., Mark Zehner, Roy Whitt, R. Lewis Morris and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Nick R. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvine Taylor, T. Cheese Gaston, G. Cleve Batts, Emmett Weatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Griffin, Wm. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene S. Southard, Wm. E. McLemore, Earl T. Green, John W. Boyd, Erskin Bates, Arthur Vasser and J. Horton Kelly, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court N. R. Nichols, Jr., was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Allen Cox was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 2nd day of April, 1936 C. F. Carrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 62 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Arthur Yarbrough

C. F. Carrentine

, Sheriff.

....., D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Calbos J. Boyd, Wm. A. Long, W. A. Morgan, Clint Boll, William A. Lyle, Jr., Mark Selmer, Roy Witt, R. Louis Lerrin and Carl Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....) unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Nick B. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Easton, Bob Irvine Taylor, E. Cheese Norton, E. Cleve Sutto, Elliott Weatherford, Bolt Cole, John B. Griffin, Wm. A. Burns, E. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene A. Southard, W. A. Holmoro, Earl E. Brown, John A. Boyd, Erskin Bates, Arthur Weaver and J. Norton Kelly.

E. B. Nichols, Jr.,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court.....was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

.....was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Hezzie H. Robinson, Wm. M. Hundley, Walter J. Schrimsher, Oscar A. Downs, Claud L. Williams, Alexander L. Claem, Floyd O. Parker, Zack Berzette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. Brakefield, Leonard F. Daniel, Morace H. Williams, Ollie McGrew, James D. Holland, Chas. S. Gates, Rolly E. Sims and Edward J. Magnusson

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Tollie C. Smith was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
O. W. Johnson, was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 H. D. Lurrentias, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Edgar D. Cline, Geo. G. Hardy, Sam M. Owen and Clint M. Brock

J. J. Elden, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. E. Good, E. L. Nichols, Bristol J. Jones, L. Williamson, W. E. Chandler, Geo. C. Lockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

Hessie B. Robinson, W. E. Handley, Walter J. Schrimsher, Oscar L. Downs, Cloud Williams, Alexander L. Claes, Floyd O. Parker, Jack Bousotte, Robert Graham, Tollie G. Smith, James H. Brakoffield, Leonard P. Daniel, Horace H. Williams, Ollie McGraw, James D. Holland, Chas. E. Gates, Holly M. Sims and Edward J. Magnusson

Tollie G. Smith was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
O. W. Johnson, was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt.

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis M. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, William G. Martin, and G. Flenaugh Douthitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hasting, W. Luther Wales, A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Douthitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Dale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Legg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson and P. Walter Ball

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court W. Luther Wales was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 17th day of October, 1900, D. L. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 08 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
John R. Holt.

Jas. W. Holliden, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
Robert L. Sittick, James A. Adams, Louis P. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence Dibs, William C. Martin, and C. Elmore Southitt.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:
Sam W. Hastings, Luther Cole, Gilbert Dowers, Walter Daniel, N. Alonso Chambers, Howard V. Southitt, M. Luke Mitchell, D. Dewitt Outlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Owens, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, M. Hale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Legg, Luther Cook, Heflin Jackson and R. Walter Hall.

Luther Cole who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Luther Cole was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 5th day of March, 1936 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Coleman W. Lock, Shelly H. House, John W. Blum and W. Frank Witt

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

D. Ben Garrett, Wilson T. Carter, Sol Mogil, Dave B. Penbo, Everett Bracher, Clifford B. Braly, Harry J. Kittrell, and John D. Whitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Edgar L. Mason, Kyle W. McDonald, Geo T. Ludder, Robert H. Gilbert, Mack R. Bullington, Ames Christopher, Ben M. Brooks, Robert L. Gray, Wm. A. Hundley, Sewel Newby, William Knox, Alvis P. Barksdale, (Big) Geo W. Hill, Dave C. Madry, Tom Jackson, Johnnie C. Holt, Raymond McCurry and Marvin Hicks, who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Robert L. Gray was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

John R. Fielding was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of March, 1936 R. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 60 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
William B. Cook, Kelly B. Bruce, John B. Allen and W. Frank Pitt

J. L. Collier, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

W. Ben Garrett, Wilson T. Carter, Ed McGill, Dave C. Smith, Everett Bratcher, Clifford B. Smith, Harry J. Pittrell, and John B. Pitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Walter B. Smith, Wyle T. McDonald, Geo W. Smith, Robert B. Gilbert, Mack B. Collington, James Christopher, Ben B. Brooks, Robert L. Gray, Dr. L. Hendley, Howell Hough, William Koon, Elvis B. Garmann, (Big) Geo W. Hill, Dave C. Harty, Tom Jackson, Johnnie C. Holt, Raymond Murray and Marvin Hines.

Robert L. Gray

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this.....5th.....day of March....., 1936... ..B. S. Turrentine....., Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of.....65.....Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Coleman W. Lock, Shelly H. House, John W. Blan and W. Frank Witt

.....J. E. Wellden....., Sheriff.

....., D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

D. Ben Garrett, Wilson T. Carter, Sol Mogill, Dave B. Denbo, Everett Bracher, Clifford B. Braly, Harry J. Kittrell, and John D. Whitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....) unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 5th day of March, 1936, B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Coleman W. Lock, Shelly H. House, John W. Blau and W. Frank Witt

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

D. Ben Garrett, Wilson T. Carter, Sol McGill, Dave B. Denbo, Everett Bracher, Clifford B. Braly, Harry J. Kittrell, and John D. Whitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Edgar L. Mason, Kyle W. McDonald, Geo F. Rudder, Robert H. Gilbert, Mack R. Bullington, Amos Christopher, Ben M. Brooks, Robert L. Gray, Wm. M. Hundley, Sewel Newby, William Know, Alvis P. Barksdale, (Big) Geo W. Hill, Dave C. Madry, Tom Jackson, Johnnie C. Holt, Raymond McCurry and Marvin Hicks,

Robert L. Gray was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
John R. Fielding was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 5th day of March, 1936 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Coleman W. Lock, Shelly H. House, John W. Blan and W. Frank Witt

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

D. Ben Garrett, Wilson T. Carter, Sol Mogil, Dave B. Denbo, Everett Bracher, Clifford B. Braly, Harry J. Kittrell, and John D. Whitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Edgar L. Mason, Kyle W. McDonald, Geo F. Rudder, Robert H. Gilbert, Mack R. Bullington, Amos Christopher, Ben M. Brooks, Robert L. Gray, Wm. M. Hundley, Sewel Newby, William Knox, Alvis P. Barksdale, (Big) Geo W. Hill, Dave C. Madry, Tom Jackson, Johnnie, C. Holt, Raymond McCurry and Marvin Hicks,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. Robert L. Gray was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

John R. Fielding was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of March, 1930 W. P. Current no 65, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Coleman A. Cook, Holly N. House, John A. Blum and W. Frank Witt

J. D. Elden, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

B. Ben Garrett, Wilson W. Carter, Ed Bogil, Dave W. Newby, Everett Bracher, Clifford B. Realy, Harry J. Kittrell, and John D. Witt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Edgar L. Mason, Kyle A. McDonald, Geo T. Rudder, Robert H. Wilbert, Rich R. Dullington, Amos Christopher, Ben M. Brooks, Robert E. Gray, M. A. Hundley, Jewel Newby, William Knox, Alvis W. Barrowale, (Big) Geo W. Hill, Dave W. Gentry, Tom Jackson, Johnnie C. Holt, Raymond McCussey and Marvin Hicke,

Robert E. Gray

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. _____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 5th day of March, 1936 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Coleman W. Lock, Shelly H. House, John W. Blan and W. Frank Witt

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

D. Ben Garrett, Wilson T. Carter, Sol Mogil, Dave B. Denbo, Everett Bracher, Clifford B. Braly, Harry J. Kittrell, and John D. Whitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Edgar L. Mason, Kyle W. McDonald, Geo F. Rudder, Robert H. Gilbert, Mack R. Bullington, Amos Christopher, Ben M. Brooks, Robert L. Gray, Wm. M. Hundley, Sewal Newby, William Knox, Alvis P. Barksdale, (Big) Geo W. Hill, Dave C. Madry, Tom Jackson, Johnnie C. Holt, Raymond McCurry and Marvin Hicks,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Robert L. Gray was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
John R. Fielding was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 5th day of March, 1936 H. B. Tarrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Colman W. Cook, Holly H. House, John L. Blum and J. Frank Witt

J. B. Mellden, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

D. Ben Garrett, Elson T. Carter, Ed Egil, Dave B. House, Everett Bracher, Clifford B. Braloy, Harry J. Pittrell, and John B. Witt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Edgar L. House, Kyle L. McDonald, Geo T. Rudder, Robert H. Gilbert, Mack B. Bullington, Arno Christopher, Ben E. Brooks, Robert C. Gray, Wm. F. Hundley, Cecil Newby, William Knox, Alvin B. Sarkodie, (Big) Geo L. Hill, Dave C. Hadry, Tom Jackson, Johnnie F. Holt, Raymond McGurry and Marvin Hicks,

Hobert L. Gray

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and _____ being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

_____ was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 5th day of March, 1936 B. S. Turrentime, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Coleman W. Lock, Shelly H. House, John W. Blan and W. Frank Witt

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

D. Ben Garrett, Wilson T. Carter, Sol Mogil, Dave B. Denbo, Everett Bracher, Clifford B. Braly, Harry J. Kittrell, and John D. Whitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Edgar L. Mason, Kyle W. McDonald, Geo F. Rudder, Robert H. Gilbert, Mack R. Bullington, Amos Christopher, Ben M. Brooks, Robert L. Gray, Wm. M. Hundley, Sewel Newby, William Knox, Alvis P. Barksdale, (Big) Geo W. Hill, Dave C. Madry, Tom Jackson, Johnnie C. Holt, Raymond McCurry and Marvin Hicks,

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Robert L. Gray was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

John R. Fielding was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 5th day of March, 19 36 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Coleman W. Lock, Shelly H. House, John W. Blan and J. Frank Witt

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.
_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
D. Ben Garrett, Wilson T. Carter, Sol Mogil, Dave B. Denbo, Everett Bracher, Clifford B. Braly, Harry J. Kittrell, and John D. Whitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Edgar L. Mason, Kyle C. McDonald, Geo F. Rudder, Robert H. Gilbert, Mack R. Bullington, Amos Christopher, Ben H. Brooks, Robert L. Gray, Wm. E. Hundley, Sewel Newby, William Knox, Alvis P. Barksdale, (Dig) Geo J. Hill, Dave C. Madry, Tom Jackson, Johnnie C. Holt, Raymond McCurry and Marvin Hicks,

Robert L. Gray who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
John R. Fielding was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 10th day of March, 1936, J. S. Corcoran, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Colonel C. Jones, Harry D. Jones, John C. Jones and J. S. Jones

J. S. Corcoran, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:
J. S. Corcoran, Wilson T. Carter, Earl Hagil, Dave D. Jones, Everett Brasher, Clifford A. Jones, Harry J. Pittrell, and John D. White

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:
John A. Jones, Kyle A. McDonald, Joe A. Jones, Robert A. Gilbert, Jack A. Dillingham, James Christopher, Dan A. Brooks, Robert A. Gray, J. S. Ramsey, David Jones, William Jones, Alvin A. Barndale, (Big) Joe A. Hill, Dave A. Jones, Tom Jackson, Johnnie A. Holt, Robert A. Jones and Marvin Jones.

Robert A. Jones

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court was selected and appointed Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 24th day of April, 1933 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of Grand Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

A. L. Baker, Sheriff.
J. E. Welden, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

L. Nell Gilbert, Osear Vinson, Sewel Newby, Luther Lock, William Clements, Fred Black, Howard Hobbs, W. Lee Weatherford, Hollis G. Ingram, Alvie Durham, W. Luther Wales, Tom J. Evans, W. Tolly McLemore, Milton W. Hayes, John W. Moore, Thos. F. Johnson, Vester Leonard and Max W. Hudson

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court L. Nell Gilbert was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.
Bonnie Webb was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 2nd day of October, 1934 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 32 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Luther Yarbrough

A. J. Baker, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Carlos J. Boyd, Chas. H. Long, Sam G. Flanigan, Clint Szell, William D. Lyle, Jr., Mark Lehner, Roy Whitt, R. Lewis Morris and Curb Black.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Nick R. Nichols, Jr., Marvin A. Casteel, Bob Irvine Taylor, T. Cheese Gaston, G. Cleve Batts, Emmett Weatherford, Belt Cole, John B. Griffin, Em. C. Burns, R. Wallace Craig, Howard Hobbs, Lorene B. Southard, Wm. T. McLenore, Earl T. Green, John W. Boyd, Arkin Bates, Arthur Vasser and J. Horton Kelly

_____ N. R. Nichols, Jr. was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Allen Cox was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar D. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, Sam M. Bowman, and Clint E. Brock

J. E. Allen, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. H. Wood, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. D. Chandler, Wm. S. Sockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar D. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, Sams M. Bowen, and Clint E. Brock

J. E. Welden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. H. Wood, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. P. Chandler, Wm. S. Sockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Hezzie H. Robinson, Wm. M. Hundley, Walter T. Schrimsher, Oscar A. Downs, Claud L. Williams, Alexandrew L. Clem, Floyd O. Parker, Zack Berzette, Robert Graham, Tollie. C. Smith, James H. Brakefield, Leonard F. Daniel, Horade H. Williams, Ollie McGrew, James, D. Holland, Chas. S. Gates, Rolly M. Sims and Edward J. Magnusson

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Tollie C. Smith was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

C. W. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1936 H. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar B. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, James H. Bowen, and Clint B. Brock

J. S. Elden, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. H. Ford, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. P. Chandler, Wm. B. Rockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Hezzie H. Robinson, Wm. F. Hunsley, Walter J. Schrimsher, Oscar A. Payne, Claud L. Williams, Alexandrew L. Clem, Floyd D. Parker, Jack Ferrette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. Drakefield, Leonard E. Daniel, Morede W. Williams, Ellie McGrew, James D. Holland, Chas. B. Gates, Holly M. Sims and Edward J. Magnusson

_____ Tollie C. Smith who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court _____ was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

C. W. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar D. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, Sam M. Bowen, and Clint E. Brock

J. E. Welden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. H. Wood, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. P. Chendler, Wm. S. Cockwell and Grover Tucker.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Hezzie H. Robinson, Wm. M. Hundley, Walter J. Schrimsher, Oscar A. Downs, Claud L. Williams, Alexandrew L. Clem, Eloyd O. Parker, Jack Berzette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. Bfakefield, Leonard P. Daniel, Horace H. Williams, Ollie McGrew, James D. Holland, Chas. S. Gates, Rolly M. Sims and Edward J. Magnusson

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Tollie C. Smith was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments. C. W. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.
Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.
I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:
Edgar D. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, James M. Bowen, and Clint E. Brock

J. E. Welden, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.
The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Goe. H. Wood, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. P. Chandler, Wm. S. Sockwell and Grover Tucker

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.
And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Hezzie H. Robinson, Wm. M. Hundley, Walter J. Schrimsher, Oscar A. Downs, Claud L. Williams, Alexandrew L. Clem, Floyd O. Parker, Zack Berzette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 14th day of March, 1935 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Edgar D. Clem, Geo. W. Hardy, James H. Bowman, and Clint E. Brock

J. E. Welden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Walton Gray, Geo. H. Wood, R. L. (Jack) Christopher, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. P. Chandler, Wm. S. Sockwell and Grover Tucker

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Hezzie H. Robinson, Wm. M. Hundley, Walter J. Schrimsher, Oscar A. Downs, Claud L. Williams, Alexandrew L. Clem, Floyd O. Parker, Zack Bernette, Robert Graham, Tollie C. Smith, James H. and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1935 E. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis M. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin, and G. Flenaugh Douthitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hasting, W. Luther Wales, A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Douthitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tome J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Dale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed Egg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson, and P. Walter Bell

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court W. Luther Wales was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1935, J. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt

J. J. Turrentine, Sheriff.
D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Dittick, James L. Adams, Louis M. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William O. Martin, and G. Elanach Southitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hastings, W. Luther Tales, A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Southitt, A. Luke Mitchell, E. Hewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Em. Dale Holt, Benton D. Bailey, Jas. Ed Egg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson, and R. Walter Bell who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. W. Luther Tales was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1935 B. G. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered; and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis E. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin, and G. Flenaugh Douthitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hasting, W. Luther Wales, A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Danite, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Douthitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Hale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed Legg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson, and P. Walter Bell

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court W. Luther Wales was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1935. B. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt.

J. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis M. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Dawson, William G. Martin and G. Plenaugh Douthitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hasting, W. Luther Wales, A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, R. Alonzo Chambers, Howard Y. Douthitt, A. Luke Mitchell, W. Dewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Dale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Legg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson and P. Walter Ball

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court. W. Luther Wales was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 17th day of October, 1935 D. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

John R. Holt.

J. C. Elden, Sheriff.

_____, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

Robert L. Bittick, James L. Adams, Louis E. Green, W. Alex Greenhaw, Clarence White, Pierre Payson, William C. Martin and E. Flenaugh Douthitt

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Tom W. Hastings, W. Luther Sales, A. Gilbert Bowers, Walter Daniel, W. Alonzo Chambers, Howard V. Douthitt, A. Luke Fitchell, E. Lewitt Gatlin, Leonard C. Cox, Tom J. Evans, Robert E. Clanton, John H. Vining, Wm. Ale Holt, Benton B. Bailey, Jas. Ed. Legg, Luther Lock, Heflin Jackson and E. Walter Hall

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court W. Luther Sales was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Fletcher Rogers was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 8th day of October, 1936 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Wes E. Hodges

Jas. B. Sallden, Sheriff.

Lila Parks, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John T. Griggs, Sam G. Flanigan, John H. Peebles, Raymond E. Patterson, Chas. F. King, Roy L. Thomas, Arthur A. Keys, C. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Andrews, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. E. Griffin, Roy Whitt, John R. Cain, Boyd Biles and Eugene E. Greenhaw.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long, Robert L. Thomas, Floy Woods, Robert Graham, Herbert W. Norton, George Vinson, Sam E. Kennemer, Wm. S. Peebles, Clifford L. Pitman, Exum Newby, James W. Fox, B. Phillip Gilbert, Milton Moore, Andrew M. Shelton, Albert E. Hastings, Wm. C. Armstrong, Joe Holt, and Carl E. Norton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

A. L. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 9th day of October, 1936 B. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Wm. D. Hodges

Joe. A. Gilden, Sheriff.

Lila Parks, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John F. Briggs, Sam G. Flanigan, John H. Peebles, Raymond H. Patterson, Chas. F. King, Roy L. Thomas, Arthur A. Keys, C. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Andrews, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. D. Griffin, Roy Whitt, John H. Cain, Royd Biles and Eugene B. Greenhaw.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long, Robert L. Thomas, Floy Woods, Robert Graham, Herbert W. Norton, George Vinson, Sam B. Kennembr, Wm. J. Peebles, Clifford L. Witman, Lum Newby, James W. Fox, B. Phillip Gilbert, Milton Moore, Andrew M. Shelton, Albert D. Hastings, Wm. C. Armstrong, Joe Holt, and Carl H. Norton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Al B. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 8th day of October, 1936, B. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Ras E. Hodges

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

Lila Parks, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John T. Griggs, Sam G. Flanigan, John H. Peebles, Raymond H. Patterson, Chas. F. King, Roy L. Thomas, Arthur A. Keys, C. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Andrews, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. E. Griffin, Roy Whitt, John R. Cain, Boyd Biles and Eugene B. Greenhaw.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($ ) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Chas. H. Long, Robert L. Thomas, Floy Woods, Robert Graham, Herbert W. Norton, George Vinson, Sam E. Kennemer, Wm. S. Beebles, Clifford L. Pitman, Exum Newby, James W. Fox, B. Phillip Gilbert, Milton Moore, Andrew M. Shelton, Albert B. Hasting, Wm. C. Armstrong, Joe Holt, and Carl M. Norton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

Al E. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 8th day of October, 1936 B. S. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Ras S. Hodges

Jas. E. Welliden, Sheriff.

Lila Parks, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John T. Griggs, Sam G. Flanigan, John H. Peebles, Raymond H. Patterson, Chas. F. King, Roy L. Thomas, Arthur A. Keys, C. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Andrews, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. E. Griffin, Roy Whitt, John R. Cain, Boyd Biles and Eugene B. Greenhaw.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

the sum of ($) unless appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Chas. H. Long, Robert L. Thomas, Floy Woods, Robert Graham, Herbert W. Norton, George Vinson, Sam E. Kennemer, Wm. S. Peebles, Clifford L. Pitman, Drum Newby, James W. Fox, B. Phillip Gilbert, Milton Moore, Andrew M. Shelton, Albert E. Hasting, Wm. C. Armstrong, Joe Holt and Carl M. Norton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

A. L. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

Joe. L. Kellden, Sheriff.

Lila Parks, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John T. Briggs, Sam C. Flanigan, John H. Peebles, Raymond H. Patterson, Chas. T. King, Roy L. Thomas, Arthur H. Keys, C. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Andrews, Chas. L. Williamson, Sam L. Griffin, Roy Whitt, John R. Cain, Boyd Diles, and Eugene B. Greenhaw.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as _____ who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of _____, the said person _____, to-wit:

_____ the sum of _____ ($ _____) unless _____ appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against _____, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

Chas. H. Long, Robert L. Thomas, Floy Woods, Robert Graham, Herbert E. Horton, George Vinson, Sam E. Kenneuer, Wm. S. Peebles, Clifford L. Pittman, Exum Newby, James W. Fox, E. Phillip Gilbert, Milton Moore, Andrew E. Shelton, Albert B. Hastings, Wm. C. Armstrong, Joe Holt, and Carl E. Norton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

A. L. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 25th day of October, 1935 J. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 33 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Sam S. P. ...

Jas. J. ..., Sheriff.

W. L. ..., D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John T. Briggs, Sam S. ... John M. ... Raymond H. Patterson, Chas. F. ... Ray L. Thomas, Arthur A. ... L. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Anderson, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. E. Griffin, Ray Shitt, John M. ... Boyd Hille and Eugene E. Greenlaw.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as..... who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of....., the said person....., to-wit:

.....the sum of.....($.....) unless.....appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against....., for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

W. L. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 24th day of October, 1936, B. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Has E. Hodges

Jas. L. Seilden, Sheriff.

Lila Parks, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John T. Griggs, Sam G. Manigan, John R. Feebles, Raymond E. Patterson, Chas. E. King, Roy L. Thomas, Arthur A. Keys, C. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Andrews, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. E. Griffin, Ray Chitt, John R. Cain, Boyd Hiles and Eugene E. Greenhaw.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of the said person, to-wit:

unless the sum of ($) appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Chas. E. Long, Robert L. Thomas, Floy Woods, Robert Graham, Herbert E. Norton, George Vinson, Sam E. Kennemer, Wm. E. Feebles, Clifford L. Bitman, Edwin Newby, James C. Fox, B. Phillip Gilbert, Milton Moore, Andrew M. Shelton, Albert E. Hastings, Wm. C. Armstrong, Joe Holt, and Carl E. Norton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. E. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

and have you then and there this order, with your endorsement thereon.

Witness this 8th day of October, 1936. B. J. Turrentine, Clerk Circuit Court.

I hereby certify that I have executed this order for the summons of 65 Jurors on all of the within named persons except:

Ras E. Hodges

Jas. E. Wellden, Sheriff.

Lila Parks, D. S.

After the said Sheriff had made his said return of said venire, the Court required all of the persons named in the said venire to be called in open Court, and all of the persons answering upon said call were duly and legally sworn and examined by the Court of and concerning their excuses, their claims of exemption and their qualifications as grand and petit jurors. The Court thereupon examined all of said persons under oath and heard and determined upon all of their excuses, claims of exemptions and qualifications as jurors.

The Court ascertained, ordered, and adjudged that the excuses rendered by the following named persons why they should not serve on the grand jury for the present term, and on the petit jury for the first week of this term of this Court, were legal, good, and sufficient excuses, and that each of said persons be and they are hereby excused from attendance upon this Court under the command of their summons. The names of the said jurors so excused by the Court are as follows:

John T. Griggs, Sam G. Flanigan, John H. Peebles, Raymond H. Patterson, Chas. F. King, Roy L. Thomas, Arthur A. Keys, C. Vaughn McKee, Fred Brock, Herman Andrews, Chas. L. Williamson, Wm. E. Griffin, Roy Whitt, John R. Cain, Boyd Biles and Eugene B. Greenhaw.

And it appearing to the Court that had been duly drawn and summoned to appear at this term of the Court and serve as who being called came not, but made default. It is therefore considered by the Court that the State of Alabama, for the use of Limestone County, have and recover of, the said person, to-wit:

unless the sum of ($) appear at the next term of this Court and show good and sufficient cause why this judgment should not be made final and absolute against, for which let Scire Facias issue accordingly.

And the Court ordered that the Clerk of the Court write on separate slips of paper the name of each of the jurors in attendance upon the Court named in said venire, who have not been excused by the Court, and place each of said slips of paper in a hat, and the Clerk obeyed said order. Thereupon the presiding Judge of this Court, in open Court, drew from the said hat the names of eighteen qualified jurors, which names are as follows:

Chas. H. Long, Robert L. Thomas, Floy Woods, Robert Graham, Herbert W. Norton, George Vinson, Sam E. Kennemer, Wm. E. Peebles, Clifford L. Pitman, Exum Newby, James W. Fox, B. Phillip Gilbert, Milton Moore, Andrew M. Shelton, Albert B. Hasting, Wm. C. Armstrong, Joe Holt, and Carl M. Norton

who composed the Grand Jury for this term of Court Chas. H. Long was selected and appointed by the Court as Foreman of said Grand Jury, who was duly sworn as said Foreman and the other Grand Jurors were duly sworn, and the Grand Jury being thus complete were charged by the Court and retired to consider their findings and presentments.

A. L. Johnston was appointed and sworn as Bailiff of said Grand Jury for this term of Court.
