

Mar 10, 1911

Supreme Court of Alabama.
Consultation Room.
Montgomery.

Friday P.M.

Dear Henry:-

Since then, you used find boarding, at least, if more pleasant and cheaper than housekeeping. A cottage usually costs about $150.00 (average) per month. Ella and her boy boarded there for $15.00 per week last summer. They found the table satisfactory. The work of housekeeping is said to be rather more than we would expect, tho if some many prefer that to boarding.

I do hope you can arrange to go. It will be fine for William.
The judges appointed yesterday are all right. Of course Judge Walker is the best man, Pelham next and Del Rappan next. It is doubtful here, whether Walker will 2 will accept. You know he was on this court years ago - still How many funny things happened followed ⁱⁿ these appointments, among some of the clear, but disappointed aspirants.

I am so glad Mother is holding up well. She has the most sublime faith I ever expect to have 4.

Bob was devoted to you and Harry & William. Poor boy; how vacant is his place in my heart. Almost every hope and we swung round him. And all, all is vain -

Yours devotedly
Brother