“A Wonderful Person”

Because she affects us so, so many people in so many ways, she always had a smile on her face. If you could see within her heart, you wouldn't know where to start and knowing someone we love has been taken away. We grew to love her with all our hearts, but Jesus loved her best. We had her for a short while, now she had to take her rest. Even though she was in so much pain, no matter what she was going through, you never saw a frown, no matter what, she kept trying to be strong. Don't worry about Carrie, she has no more pain, no more sorrow will it bring. She's fixed up in Jesus' name. She kept the faith, never gave up until it was time for Jesus to take her home. We loved Carrie, but Jesus loved her best. Now it's time for her to rest.

Obituary

Sister Carrie M. Holden was born to the late Rev. George Moore, Sr. and Mother Estella Davis Moore on October 12, 1958 in Madison, County, Alabama. She passed away at her home on July 18, 2000. God reached down and plucked her for a rose in his Heavenly Bouquet.

Her family was a great pride to her. In March 1988, she was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Jimmie A. Holden, Sr. and became the mother of four (4) children. Her husband was her companion and her best friend. At an early age of her life, she confessed hope in Christ and accepted the Lord Jesus as her personal savior and joined the St. Elizabeth CPCA under the leadership of her father, the late George Moore, Sr. Her employment was with Slaughter Road Daycare Center, Madison, AL. She was a faithful member of the St. Elizabeth Sanctuary Choir until her health failed her.

She leaves to cherish in her loving memories, her loving and devoted husband: Mr. Jimmie A. Holden, Sr., her children: Jarvis S. Holden, Darris E. Holden, Latrisa A. Holden and Jimmie A. Holden, Jr., all of Madison, Alabama; God-daughter: Helena Davis and Grand God-daughter: Krisjén Davis, both of Huntsville, AL; her sisters: JoAnn Brown (Thomas), Ruby Hobbs, Minister Cheryl Cartwright (Eric), Etta Moore and Olivia Hardin of Huntsville, Alabama; her brothers: Horace Moore (Eather), Calvin Hill (Goldie), G. W. Moore, and Kenneth Moore (JoAnn) of Huntsville, Alabama, Willie J. Moore (Rev. Stella), Randolph Moore (Angela), and Rev. Abraham Moore (Erica) of Madison, Alabama, Lawrence Moore (Shirley), and Rev. George Moore, Jr. (Velvet) of Harvest, Alabama; brothers-in-law: Charles E. Bradley (Flora), Coy Lee Holden (Delois), Vincent Holden (Gloria), Rev. John Holden (Alexis), and Billy Ray Holden (Felicia); sister-in-law: Lucille Foy (Louis) of Longbeach, California; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

The Wife She Was . . . "Carrie"

All the years I spent with you, you had a special way that warmed my heart. You had all the qualities that made you a wonderful wife. You have left all your beautiful memories with me, and they will stay with me each and everyday of my life.

*Always love you,
Your Husband - Jimmie, A.
Holden, Sr.*

"MaMa"

*To one who bears the sweetest name
and adds a luster to the same,
Who shares my joys, who cheers when sad,
the greatest friend I ever had.
Long life to her for there's no other,
that can take the place of our dear mother.*

*Your Children:
Jarvis, Darris, Latrisa, & Jimmie, Jr.*
