L. Crisman and others. The hearing of said petition having been passed until this term of the Court and it just appearing that due and legal notice of the filing of said petition had been given. Now comes C. W. Hamilton and others who file their petition in writing praying that said former petition be denied since because it is not known to the Court which petition has a majority of the names of the land owners of said Bank. It is therefore ordered by the Court that an election be held in said Bank on the day of 1906, to determine which was in the majority. And further action upon the hearing of said Application be passed and continued until the next regular Term of this Court.

E. P. Smith and others filed their Application in writing to clear a road running one fourth of a mile through the lands of Ralston McCormack and to open up a road one half of a mile running north and south between the lands of said Ralston McCormack and Mrs. Cole. It appearing to the Court that proper notice of the filing of said petition - and no one appearing to object to said Application it is therefore ordered by the Court that said Application be granted and that said road running one fourth of a mile be through the lands of said Ralston McCormack be cleared, and that the road running north and south between the lands of said Ralston McCormack and Mrs. Cole for one half a mile be opened. The said road to be opened without expense or loss to this Lincoln County. The said Ralston McCormack having donated the lands for said Road.

C. McQuay and others filed their Application in writing praying that an order be granted therefore this Court to change the location of a road in Hickman's Bank No. 6, in this Lincoln County, said change to be as follows, to leave the said present road as it runs from the line between N. B. Smith & J. C. Henry Scotts line run west to line line three rods with said line line to Runaway Road in Dec 1888 & Co and it appearing to the Court that due and legal notice of the filing of said Application to change said road had been given. And no one appearing to oppose said change of said road it is therefore ordered by the Court that said Application be granted and that said change of said road be made as set out in said Application which is to be done without expense to the County.

An election having been heretofore ordered by the Court to be held in Georgia Bank No. 9, to take a vote for and against the running at large in said Bank of Hogs and Cattle. An election will be held in said Georgia Bank No. 9, on May 26th 1906, with the following result viz. At Ripley But there was cast 19 votes for Petition and 14 votes against said At Ripley But there was cast 30 votes for Petition and 26 votes against Petition making a total of 49 votes for Petition and 40 votes against Petition. It is therefore ordered by the Court that the result be and the same hereby declared against petition.
