*As we come together today to say our final goodbye,
Remember "Jesus Wept" and that there's nothing wrong
if we also weep and cry!*

But cry not for the man, George Malone, he's gone on to take his rest.

And while we don't understand death, we take comfort in knowing that "God does know best."

But when you lose someone you love, you weep for the missed voice, the smile, that human touch

The little things they did for you and with you that you will miss so much!

OBITUARY

*George Malone can be likened to a
Lily in the Valley, full of life and breath
Then the smile fades, the blossom withers, taken by the reaper whose name is death.*

This reaper of death visited George Malone on Saturday, May 27, 1995 at the hospital in Albany, GA. George Malone was born on November 29, 1926 in Limestone County, Alabama to the late Louis and Lillie Mae Cosby Malone. George was one of nine children, four brothers preceded him in death, Robert, Walter, Louis and John D. He was baptized in August 1940 by Rev. M. C. Cosby and joined the New Hopewell Church. He married Edna Pearl Hyter Malone and they made their home in Nashville, TN. They have three children and five grandchildren.

George Malone leaves to cherish his memories a beloved wife: Edna Pearl Malone. Three children: George Bennett Malone, Helen Bernadette Joyce and Irish Michelle Malone. Grandchildren: George III, Kudas, Shanese, Kirsty and David. One sister: Vera Beck. Three brothers: Earnest Malone, E. J. (Johnnie) Malone and Bennie Lee (Joann) Malone. Three sisters-in-law: Sadie Malone, Dorothy Malone and Ida Malone. One brother-in-law: Claude Cartwright. Uncle: Lakon Cosby. Aunts: Lavonia Settles, Elizabeth Jones and Juanita Cosby. Seven stepsisters and brothers. A devoted niece and nephew: Carolyn Williams and Thomas Malone and a host of other loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The Malone Family extends our love and appreciation for the special care given to George during his illness, to the entire Frasier Family of Albany, GA. David, Mrs. Mattie, Bertha and Gloria, may God bless each of you.
