Celebrating An Angel

Dominique Skye Parks went home with her Lord on Wednesday, November 7, 2012. She was born September 9, 1990 to parents Jack Parks Jr., and Vicky Jones-Parks in Houston, Texas and raised in Arlington, Texas. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Jack Parks Sr., and Sedalia Parks.

Dominique confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined Victory Temple Church in Ft. Worth, Texas, where she was active in the Youth Ministry. She was also a volunteer at the Victory Temple Women & Children's Home, where she aided in the care of families in need. Dominique had such a maternal instinct for the children, family and friends in her life, always acting as a mother figure to her loved ones.

She loved and had an eye for abstract things, expressing her creative personality through fashion. Dominique knew what she wanted to do at an early age and fashion was calling her name. She started perusing her dreams becoming a student at the Dallas Art Institute in Dallas, Texas where she studied Fashion Merchandising. Afterwards, she planned to further her studies by attending the New York Institute.

Dominique left an enormous footprint on this world and in the hearts of those she deeply cared for. She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her parents, Jack Parks Jr. and Vicky Jones-Parks; her grandparents, George Jones, Sr. and Doris Jones; her siblings, Latoya Jones-Gipson, William Orr, Jack White, Jacoby Parks and Chelsea Parks; her many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and a host of cousins, other relatives and life-long friends.
