Obituary

"God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb; He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered, "Peace Be Thine."

Sister Addie Will Coffman, was born to the late George and Rena Coffman, April 26, 1923 in Limestone County, Alabama. She departed this life on June 5, 2005 at the Cogburn Nursing Center in Huntsville, Alabama.

She grew up in the Red Hill Community and was educated in the Limestone County Schools.

She confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. F. D. Sowell. Later, she united with the Sweet Home Missionary Baptist Church where she served faithfully until death.

She was in the nursing field for a number of years at Athens-Limestone Hospital. She also served her community as an Insurance Agent for Booker T. Washington Insurance Company until retirement.

Mrs. Addie, which she was fondly known, was a devoted and loving person. She loved all children and put their interest first. She has been like a Mother and Grandmother to many.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving son, Timothy (Brendette) Coffman of Birmingham, AL; a devoted sister, Louise Gill of Athens, AL; one sister-in-law, Bertha Coffman of Athens, AL; 3 grandchildren, La Tisha, Ta Nisha and Antoinette Hawthorn of Huntsville, AL; one great-grandson, Deondre' Chunn of Huntsville, AL; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and loving friends.

A Legacy To A Memory

One of God's most precious gifts is the gift of memory.

He gave the sweetest thing in His mighty power when He moved the Gates of heaven apart and gave to us – ADDIE.

ADDIE, who shared a long and beautiful life with her family, will always be that bright star that will shine forever in the memories of our hearts. During her long stay on earth she gave so much of herself to all of us; the joy of laughter, her quest for knowledge, her humanitarian spirit, her faith and her stamina in suffering, her strength to endure and positive attitude toward life. It is God's precious gift. Man has no power for such a task. ADDIE, you brought us joy that flooded our hearts with sweet content, and made us so proud that you were a part of our lives. We loved you in life, and we will love you throughout eternity. – The Family
