OBITUARY

Death is only the cutting of a delicate flower that enables it to bloom anew in an eternal garden more beautiful and fragrant than earth's eye has ever beheld. Catch, then O catch the transient hour; Improve each moment as it flies; Like's a short summer — man a flower.

Elder Leroy Davis, Sr., born April 3, 1907 to the late Cleveland and Camilla Davis, In Giles County, Tennessee, did so live that when death came on November 3, 1990, he was substained by his faith and hope in Christ which he confessed in 1948 and lived out in his daily activities from that day forward.

He was a devoted and dedicated member of the Elkmont Second Cumberland Presbyterian Church until his health failed. He has served as Sunday School Superindendent, , Teacher and was presently active as Elder, Sunday School Chaplin, and Church Treasurer.

He was united in holy matrimony to Mattie B. Jackson, July 1928. To this union ten children was born and two preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memory five sons, Leroy Davis, Jr., Joe A. Davis, Thomas Davis of Elkmont, Alabama, James Davis, Indianapolis, Ind., and Oscar Davis, Huntsville, Alabama; three daughters, Mable Martindale, Indianapolis, Ind., Annie Lois Davis, and Juanita Woods, Elkmont, Alabama; one sister Jo Quilla Davis, Athens, Alabama; four daughters-in-law; one son-in-law; twenty-five grandchildren, twenty-two great grandchildren; four brothers-in-law, seven sisters-in-law; a host of nephews, neices cousins, and other relatives and friends.

*At end of view, at end of life,
At end of hope, at end of strife,
At end of all we cling to so,
The sun is setting—must we go?*

*At dawn of view, at dawn of life,
At dawn of peace that follows strife,
At dawn of all we long for so,
The sun is rising—let us go.*
