Obituary

Eula Mae Askins was born December 16, 1918 in Athens, Alabama to the late Albert and Annie Hines.

In the midst of daily strifes and joys, Eula Mae departed this life on Saturday, April 22, 2000.

She confessed hope in Christ and became a member of Fletcher's Chapel at an early age. She worked faithfully and served as a mother of the church for over 30 years.

Mother Askins lived a rich and rewarding life and will be missed as a loving devoted mother, grandmother, and a dedicated friend.

*She lives to cherish her memory one daughter, Ms. Wendetta Shoulders of Chattanooga, Tennessee; one grandson, Michael (Leticia) Fairbanks of Shelbyville, Tennessee; two granddaughters, Sonya (Brian) Davis of Chattanooga, Tennessee and Tia (Gerald) Cummings of Lafayette, Georgia; five great-granddaughters; and a host of others relatives and friends.
Two very devoted friends, William and Christine Royles of Athens, Alabama.*
