OBITUARY OF THE LATE
Brother John Moore

The Holy Father, infinite in loving kindness and tender mercy, saw it eminent to add another to His Kingdom of love; to free another servant from labor, and to clasp another of His own to His bosom. This was accomplished on Monday, May 22, 1967, at 4:30 P.M. with the passing of Brother John E. Moore.

Brother Moore was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lot Moore, and was born in Giles County, Tennessee, February 20, 1881. He was united in marriage to Mrs. Terrah Jones; and to this union twelve children were born; of whom his wife and three of the children preceded him in death.

He confessed hope in Christ at a late date under the pastorage of Reverend F. D. Sowell, and joined the Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church.

In the year of 1945, he married Mrs. Carrie Bass on July 18, in the state of Mississippi. They lived a loving and devoted life until his death, on May 22, 1967 at his home, 322 Hines Street, Athens, Alabama.

He leaves to mourn his passing, a devoted wife; two step-sons; two sisters; one brother; four daughters; five sons; twenty-five grandchildren; fifty-four great grandchildren; eight great-great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
