

MRS. KATE BUCHANAN
FAYETTEVILLE, TENN.

Feb. 4 - 1931

Dear Mary -

I am sending you a piece of Markas last letter. I think it might be of a little interest to William - Also I want to tell you, I forgot to mention William L. Grey - There is a sketch of him, in all Fla. histories - I am familiar with his name, and character - In many old letters, from Montgomery, during time, he is mentioned - my father was one of two men who voted against him, for the Confederate Senate, also he was one, of two men, who refused to sign the Ordinance of secession during the same Convention, of 1841 - Yancy made a speech in Huntsville, in the midst of his glory, as the orator of the South - Mr Ripley Davis answered him - His friends were surprised, and delighted that he made the best speech - He was conservative as North Ala. was at that time - Yancy, I abid secessionist - Mr Davis was a powerful speaker - Had fine voice, and manner - Please excuse me, where any thing of the past, comes up I don't know when to stop - I know you are enjoying millions and millions - you will see in the "News" Ben Whitakers death - Mary Lou. has had - whom we all loved so much while young. Aunt Kitty
