The Obituary

Mrs. Tera M. McDonald was born February 18, 1895 in Limestone County, Alabama. She departed this life on Tuesday, December 12, 1967, at the Decatur General Hospital, Decatur, Alabama.

She confessed hope in Christ at a very early age and joined the Stoney Point Methodist Church, and became a member of Samson Chapel Christian Methodist Episcopal Church following the consolidation of the two Churches - Stoney Point and Samson Chapel. She was a faithful member until death.

She was a good neighbor - friendly and loved by all who knew her. She was always willing to lend a helping hand to any who needed help.

Survivors include a devoted husband, Reverend Fred McDonald; a relation, Mrs. Cordie Murrah of Athens, Alabama; two sisters, Mrs. Annie Jackson, Nashville, Tennessee, and Mrs. Classie Clark, Athens, Alabama; eleven grandchildren; eleven great grandchildren; two sisters-in-law; a large number of nieces and nephews; and other relatives and friends.

"What a wonderful chorus through the skies shall ring when the saints go marching in."
