Obituary

Mrs Lenora Anderson Woodruff was born in Limestone County, Alabama on Feb 22, 1905.

She was born to Scott and Nancy Hobbs who have preceded her in death.

Realizing that her life was empty without Christ, she, at an early age, accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She became a member of the St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church and remained a dutiful member until she left to live in Nashville, Tennessee with her husband, Earnest Woodruff, who has preceded her in death.

Lenora lived all of her adulthood in Nashville, Tennessee. She worked until she retired at the Baptist Hospital as a nurse's aid. When her husband passed away in Nashville, she realized that she needed to be around her family members in Athens. Therefore, she decided to move home to Athens next door to her devoted niece and nephew, James and Katy Elliott.

Lenora lived in the Presence of James and Katy until the doctor suggested the Limestone County Nursing Home. Before her stay in the nursing home, there was no love and caring withheld from James and Katy. Lenora would sometimes mention to other family members and friends of how good her children (James and Katy) were to her. She entered into eternity to meet her Lord and Savior, December 7, 1999, at 3:20 pm, at the Limestone County Health Facility.

One Brother, James Coleman of Louisville, Kentucky. As we celebrate her life today, Lenora's memory will long remain with her niece and nephew: Katie and James, Cousins: Fred and Beatrice Allen, Athens. Nieces: Katie Elliott and Shana David, both of Athens, Ala. Nephews: Mack W. David, Athens, and Richard T. David, of Michigan, Timothy James Elliott, St. L. Ma, Jamie Elliott, Athens, Terrence Elliott, Germany, Marxlyn and Marquis David, both of Athens, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Song *..... Choir

Responsive Reading Mrs. Zelma Carter

Leader* We do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep,
Or to grieve like the rest of men,
Who have no hope.

People* We believe that Jesus died and rose again
And so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him.

Leader* According to the Lord's own word,
We tell you that we who are still alive,
Who are left till the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep.

People* For the Lord himself will come down
From heaven, with a loud command,
With the voice of the archangel
And with the trumpet call of God,
And the dead in Christ will rise first.

Prayer.

To my Family and friends

Don't cry for me, I'm much happier now. My Lord Jesus called and He could not wait. My earthly body has passed away. But my spirit will from you never stray. My life with you was filled with joy.
But now, I'm in Heaven's employ. My burdens are light. My heart flows with love, I'm riding high on the wings of a dove. Don't cry for me, I'm much happier now!
