Wm. W. W.

I have your letter, and the enclosed list of teacher's effects. Outside of some of her books (you to choose them) and brother's perap books, I do not want any of the other things.
I surrender and release to you my interest in all the other things listed by you - of course Robert Henry should have her Bible.

I would suggest that, after you claim what you want, you dispose of the rest either by gift or sale. I cannot use or store anything other books & the books.

I expect, or rather hope to run up to Athens some future day afternoon soon - and can then bring the penop back with me, if you are willing for me to have them -

All her jewelry should go to you - The Mc Sloss watch, I think she lost. That in some way - The Katharine Society jewelry, including shoulders kept by you, belong to you -

It may be that one some needy people you know broken things undesired by you would prove a blessing -

Yours truly
Thos. B. Luce
