She leaves to cherish her memories three sons, Billy W. Robinson (Lula), Kenneth Robinson, and Timothy L. Robinson; four daughters, Gwendolyn R. Embry (Billy), Georgette R. Moore (Henry), Patricia R. Robinson (James), and Sharon R. Shoulders (Derrick); three brothers, Willie Ed McCaulley, Herman McCaulley, and Willie Oliver; one sister, Charles Ella Green; two sisters-in-law, Obelia McCaulley and Lorene Oliver; twelve grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith;

II Timothy 4:7

Just Resting

To those I love and those who love me. Now I'm gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be Happy we had so many years.

I gave you my love; only you can guess. How much you gave to me in happiness.... I thank you for the love you each have shown. But now it's time I traveled alone...

So grieve for me a while if grieve you must. Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So, if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear.
All my love around you soft and clear.

And when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and say, "Welcome Home".
