

STATE OF ALABAMA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
MONTGOMERY

July 25, 1932.

Senator R. H. Walker,
Athens, Ala.

My dear Senator Walker:

This is written to express in writing to you my appreciation of your visit today. Enjoyed every minute of the time and every word said by you.

There is a great crisis in Alabama. It has not yet reached in my opinion the terrible climax. We must meet it like men, bravely, heroically and patriotically.

Our great State has a wonderful future, if we face the facts squarely and act economically, wisely and patriotically.

It was easily discerned from our conversation this morning, that your heart beats in full accord for the payment of State debts, for good schools, for good roads, for reduction in expenses of government and for abolishment of useless offices and unnecessary employees.

I was delighted with your visit and proud of your official attitude on vital public questions.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,
