Miss Me - But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little - But Not Too Long and not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared; Miss Me - But Let Me Go.
For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan, A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

Love Your Husband
Clarence

You Are Not Forgotten

You are not forgotten, Pansy nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last I will remember thee.
I miss you now, my heart is sore and as time goes by, I'll miss you more your loving smile, your gentle face: no one can fill your vacant place.
~Love, Minnie

Acknowledgement

Our love, our thanks, our blessings to all who have offered their support to the family during our time of need. Your visits, your flowers, your phone calls, your cards, your thoughts, your prayers have helped to strengthen and encourage us. Thank you so much in this time of bereavement. God bless.

In Loving Memory of

Pansy Inez Moore

June 25, 1913 - December 26, 2008

Obituary

Pansy Inez Moore

Mrs. Pansy Inez Moore was born in Dublin, Georgia on June 25, 1913 to the union of the late Mr. Thomas Pie and Mrs. Effie Pie.

She was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Clarence Moore in June of 1963.

She accepted Christ at an early age. Mrs. Moore was a faithful member of the Park Manor United Church of Christ until her death.

Mrs. Moore was employed with the State of Illinois Unemployment Compensation Office for twenty-seven years where she retired.

She departed this life December 26, 2008 at 6:13 pm, after a long illness at the South Shore Hospital in Chicago, Illinois.

She leaves to mourn; her loving husband of forty-five years ~ Mr. Clarence Moore; two sons ~ Reginald Moore of Chicago and Albert Moore who preceded her in death; one daughter-in-law ~ Claudia Moore of Texas; one grand daughter, three great grand children, two cousins, and a young lady who came into her life at the early age of three ~ Whitney T. McCoy, whom Mrs. Moore took as her great grand daughter.
