Obituary

Mr. Billy Wells Embry was born on September 13, 1950 in Decatur, Alabama to the late Mr. Charles and Mrs. Tessie Mae Seymour Embry.

He confessed hope in Christ, was baptized and became a life-long member of the Frist Missionary Baptist Church in Decatur, Alabama, where he served as a Christian Counselor and Deacon.

Billy received his formal education at Lakeside High School in Decatur, Alabama. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from The University of Toledo and his Master of Science degree from Louis University Chicago.

He served as an insurance agent with Liberty National Life. His favorite hobby was tennis and his greatest accomplishment in life was being born again and living a good clean Christian life.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

God quietly called Billy into eternal rest on Sunday night, July 21, 2013. His memory will be cherished by: his loving and devoted wife of 15 years, Gwendolyn Robinson Embry of Decatur; two children, Marcy Woods of Decatur and Eric Jackson of Toledo, OH; five grandchildren, Shania Lei Chandler of Decatur, De Shawna Barnhill, Eric Jackson Jr., John Jackson and Joshua Jackson of Toledo, OH; one sister, Doris E. Mack of Toledo, OH; one brother, William F. Kee of Decatur; and one special cousin, Mary L. Kelly of Decatur; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“Miss Me But Let Me Go”

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.*

*Miss me a little-but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know and
Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.*
