OBITUARY

It is said that there are three words in the english vocabulary that are more solemn than all of the others. They are: Life, Death and Eternity. Life is more solemn than De ath, to live is more serious than to die. The object of Christ's death was life-- a Christian's death give them a more abundant life. Death is a joyful messenger of peace whose kind hands open to the weary pilgrams the gate of immortality and lets the oppressed go free.

A busy life came to a close Sunday, October 25, 1964, when Romelia Oliver was called to her heavenly home. She was born to Mrs. Rosie Davis and James Fletcher in Madison County in the year 1905. There she attended the churchs and schools of that area. She married the Reverend George Oliver and moved to Cleveland, Ohio. She professed a hope in Christ in 1950 and was a faithful and model christian. Her influence will be with us--such a life never dies.

Romelia has been separated from an aching frame, sleeps so restful, so at peace no more sickness, no more pain, has entered a new life in a heavenly land.

She leaves to mourn her passing: a husband, Reverend George Oliver of Cleveland, Ohio; seven brothers, Mr. Clarence Fletcher, Murfresboro, Tenn., Mr. David Fletcher, Athens, Mr. Jim Fletcher, Athens, Mr. Willie E. Fletcher, Huntsville, Mr. Freddie Fletcher, Mooresville, Mr. Isaih Fletcher, Cleveland, Ohio, and Mr. O. C. Fletcher; seven sisters, Mrs. Queen Fletcher, Athens, Mrs. Lillian Freeman, Mrs. Nellie B. Scales, Ceda Leslie, Mrs. Beatrice Rogers, Mrs. Hazel Turner, Mrs. Earline and Mrs. Dorothy Lee Fletcher; three aunts, Mrs. Ida Fletcher, Mrs. Mollie Langford and Wavern Edwards; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Mildred Davis; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
