Tribute to Grandma

Great time you shared with us

Respectful and rightful things you taught us

A Truthful person to us

Never let trouble stand in your way

Did many things with and for us

Most beautiful and warmhearted woman we know

Adorable in many ways

Granny we love you and we understand you are going on home to be in a better place. You have done so much down here for us we can hardly accept it. You are sweeter than honey on a honeycomb. We love you.
Your grandchildren

Momma,

I miss and love you; you were my very best friend in the world. I will miss the times we talked, the times we laughed, the times we cried, and all the wonderful times we had. Thank you for giving me life. Mom, you were a wonderful mother, and an awesome grandmother to my kids, and I thank you for that. I hope you knew the joy that you brought to our lives.

Love your Daughter
Stephanie

Ella

Your time has come to say goodbye as you begin your second part of your life's journey. You've had your good times and your bad time too, but no matter how big the problem was you always seem to pull through. I guess I have a lot to learn about life before I can say I understand all its pain and strife, but I do know...The earth still turning, the stars still shine, the sun still burning, and the river still flow to the endless sea, but for some unknown reason your not here with me. The world hasn't change, but it still ain't the same. My heart just flickers when it once was a flame, but by the way I act you could never tell my heart has shattered but I hide it so well.
