Dear Father:-

How are you, I suppose you are just as big a hic as you were before you left home. Don't stare to much at the skyscrapers.

I got a holiday today (Wednesday) for some unknown reason.

Mother did everything you told her to do, and about that plan don't bring me a glove I have already bought one.

Mother has been grinding Mayonnaise dressing for the last two hours like an organ grinder.

I miss you very much so please come home soon.

Mother says give you her love and so do I,
Yours affectionately (over)
Wm Walker

P.S. Judging from the hotel you are staying at you will be talking about the Martins all the time when you come home,
