

#239 Central Park Hotel
Oct - 18 - 1922

Dearest Harry: The registered letter that I sent to the wrong address finally turned up & I am answering at once.
Thank you for the notes - I thought best to bundle them - feared it might embarrass you to collect interest &

I can assure you it won't upset me a bit - I feel it much more necessary to be strictly business with my own family -

About the ^{$}10,000 from her - do just as you said. Lead that in trust as the Trust Fund suits me fine.

& do as you think best about the balance he owes - if you think best to wait the 2 years & take a chance on the 10 per cent. why do so - if not then do as you think best about the diamond stud - I leave them entirely with you. yes. I understand your letter perfectly - think you make things very plain in your letters - I am spending money like a drunken sailor but hope to stop soon -

We have taken an apartment for Charles - Walter Ryan is a friend of Charles - Evalina Harris & I. We got one remarkably cheap - but I have had to do the financing as the others were about broke⁵ - rent in advance etc - I'll get mine all back each month when they pay board, but it takes a big lump at first -

I am going to begin my Life Insurance now on Nov. 15 - The General Agts here of the Penn Mutual have been very wonderful to me & say they feel that I'll make a grand success - they say that I really should make later on about 2 or a ^{$} weeks - but I fear not - any how I'll work - & now Harry, for all the money you can take & scrape in the bauls for that apartment needs furniture.

- of course I ~~do~~ won't go into principal - let me hear from you as to what I can expect as soon as possible - Joe & Charles radiant over having a home - you need it badly - love to all of your house - & to your house.

Received from R. W. Walker three notes payable to Nance F. Richardson
signed by W. G. Fair Jr &
Annie Sykes Fair -

Note for	$400	- dated	Dec. 10 - 1921
" "	300	"	Jan. 19 - 1922
" "	300	"	Feb. 24 - 1922

Nance F. Richardson
Oct. 18 - 1922 - New York City